AN EVENING WITH CHINA

The session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society yesterday afternoon convened at 2 o'clock. The afternoon was given over principally to routine business, the election of vice presidents, conference and district secretaries and standing committees, the present list of auditors and managers of the branch being confirmed.

Mrs. Philip Roettinger, vice president of the branch, occupied the chair at the beginning of the session, which was opened by the first hymn, "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing." Mrs. Carr led in prayer and after hymn 919 had been sung the scripture lesson was read from Psalm 156. Miss Turner and Miss Croxall were introduced as pages for the afternoon.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved, after which the report of the Ohio conference was read by their conference secretary, Mrs. J. H. Creighton. The report showed that over $12,000 had been raised by that conference.

Mrs. John Mitchell presented the report of the North Ohio conference, showing that this conference had raised $500 more this year than last.

The reports were received and placed on file.

Mrs. B. R. Cowen, branch corresponding secretary, then made her report, which was listened to with great interest. The report was a thorough and complete review of the work at home and abroad. One notable fact being that Africa for the first time appears in the report.

Mrs. Clara Zink sang a very beautiful solo.

The reports of the treasurers were next in order and in the absence of Mrs. J. C. Kunz, the receiving treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Boyd, the distributing treasurer, presented both reports. They showed that the receipts for the year were $58,070 41. The twentieth century thank offering, which is a separate fund, and collected for a specific purpose, $10,337. The total balance in the hands of the treasurers is $1,255 46.

The president, Mrs. Davis, yesterday afternoon introduced a new feature which consisted of making certain parties who have held the position of vice president, honorary vice presidents in consideration of their loyal services in the past. They are as follows:

Mrs. Dr. D. H. Moore, now in China; Mrs. J. F. Lloyd, of Highland, O.; Mrs. A. S. Clason, of Delaware, O.; Mrs. Horace Benton, of Cleveland; Mrs. J. M. Irvine.

The session closed at 4:30 with the benediction by Rev. N. U. Walker.

AN INTERESTING EVENING SESSION.

When the time arrived for the evening session there was a large attendance and services opened with an anthem by the choir, "Seek ye the Lord." It was followed by a solo by Prof. Phillis, who sang "The Pilgrim's Prayer" in splendid voice.

Hymn 596 was sung and then devotional services were conducted by Mrs. B. R. Cowen.

Just before the speaker was introduced a communication was handed to the president, Mrs. Davis. It asked that all ladies remove their hats, and was signed by one who could not see. The ladies very generally complied with the request.

The address of the evening was made by Rev. Dr. J. H. Worley, of China. He has spent 18 years as a missionary in China and has been in this country since last December. He took for his subject "An Evening With China," and his address is as follows:

The speaker commenced by saying that according to the printed program he was to speak from the subject, "An Evening With China." He hoped in the course of an hour to spend about 250 years with China, and might do a little prophesying before he was through. But before he started he wanted to make a few statements. In the first place he wanted to approve of everything that had lately been said in defense of the Chinese. European nations have not dealt fairly with China. They have from time to time taken large tracts of Chinese territory. Russia had been particularly grasping, and these things undoubtedly had something to do with the difficulties now being contended with in that country. He would not pretend to give all the causes. No one could do that. China was not only at war with the world, but with herself.

Some 250 years ago the Tartars, a warlike nation, succeeded in overthrowing the Chinese government, and since that time have controlled China absolutely. It was to defend themselves against the Tartars that the great wall was built. But it didn't serve the purpose. From that time until the present outbreak China has been as completely under the control of a foreign power as was Cuba. As soon as the Tartars were established rightly they inaugurated a system of service. All the principal offices were distributed among the Tartars. The 18 provinces in China were thronged with from 10,000 to 50,000 Tartar spies and emissaries. A few of the minor civil offices were given to Chinamen of royal blood, such, for example, as Li Hung Lang and Wu. These men owed their prominence to the Tartars. Every favor and every courtesy accorded these Chinamen of royal blood was bestowed by the Tartars. Is it any wonder they were true to their government?

Origin of the Boxers.
About this time the intelligent of the Chinamen formed a fraternal secret society, which had for its primary object the overthrow of the Tartar government. This society had representatives all over the country, and were active at all times. The name of this society was changed from time to time in order to avoid being apprehended by the government officials. These names were always taken with the purpose in view of disarming suspicion as to its true purpose. The first name adopted was

Li Ho Chang, which meant righteousness, peace and industry.

This was the beginning of the Boxers. An error had evidently been made in interpreting the meaning of the word Li Ho Chang, as the latter part of the word stood for palm, and whoever hit upon the word Boxer had taken it to mean fist instead of the palm. The fact that the members of this society were recognized as a gymnastic organization was another reason, perhaps, for the interpretation. The Chinese soldier is said to get his courage to a high pitch by a series of gymnastics. It is like this: A Chinese soldier takes as his god the soul of some departed hero, and in this manner may be preserved through battle, provided he can get possession of the soul. This requires many gymnastic evolutions, and occurs previous to every battle—another reason, possibly, for the name Boxer.

During the 40 years of Hang Pah's reign he never had an offspring to his true wife, and when he died he left but one son, and that to one of his numerous concubines. This woman, together with the true wife, ruled China by regent for many years. The real wife is described as a weak, submissive creature, while the mother was precisely opposite in disposition, being a keen, mercenary and hard-hearted woman. The boy succeeded to the throne two years later, having married in the meantime. He died soon after and then there were three regents. The true empress and the wife of the old emperor did not survive long, and it is an undeniable fact that they were murdered by the old emperor's concubine. This is the woman who is today terrorizing the entire nation, the present empress dowager.

She then had everything in her own hands and proceeded to make the best of the situation. A meeting of the royal princes was called for the purpose of selecting a successor to the throne, the bony Tuan Twang being the next of kin, but he did not suit the scheming woman, as he had, young as he was, succeeded in exerting great power among the people. The dowager empress, however, still had sufficient influence to have another boy, much younger than he, appointed. This enabled her to retain control for some time. The boy was kept in the background until Tuan succeeded to power. The empress then remained behind the scenes until two years ago. Things moved on until China and Japan went to war. This was a Great Blessing to China.

The trouble was the lesson was not severe enough; China needed reform—something radical.

Two years ago a number of young students, realizing the need of reform conceived the idea of writing the emperor, Tuan, feeling that he was in position to know the wants and needs of the people. These young men in a majority of cases had been educated by the Christian missionaries. The intelligence imparted by these communications had the effect of opening the eyes of the emperor, and he took immediate steps to carry out the suggestions. He issued

Edict After Edict
with the end in view of giving the common people a better opportunity to gain knowledge, ordering all unoccupied temples converted into schools. Geography was introduced and a great rush was made to take advantage of the opportunity for education.

This displeased the empress and she took steps to put the young emperor out of the way, as it was not her intention to have her subjects educated. He was put in prison and has remained a captive ever since.

Dealt With Chinese Politics.

The speaker dealt at some length on Chinese politics, describing the method of education to fit themselves for official positions; stating that only the rich could take advantage of the opportunities for learning, owing to the length of time required to fit themselves to be statesmen and the expense incurred. Their civil service policy was rotten to the core.

This same society, instituted 250 years ago, was still in existence when this great question of reform was uppermost in the minds of the true Chinamen. This was the real cause of the Boxer outbreak. The empress was apprehensive. She could see the inevitable and took steps to guard against the invasion of the foreign devils and native Christians. Since the Japanese war their rice has been exported, and this was taken advantage of in order to raise sufficient revenue to equip the army.

Hard Times in China

was the result. Japan had money to pay for the rice and wanted it. The price went up, but wages remained the same or lower, so that the outlook of the Boxers was really a mammoth strike. By a clever piece of diplomacy this woman succeeded in directing the wrath of the revolutionists against the foreigners instead of toward the real source of their troubles.

Dewey Gave China Joy.

When the news of Dewey's achievement reached China it carried a thrill of joy on the part of all Americans and Christian nations there, as they felt it was God's doing, and was coming nearer China, to work out their destiny. The speaker said when the Chinese question is ultimately settled America will be the most influential to that end.

America don't want territory, and the Chinese know it. They see in us a true friend, who has only their welfare at heart. Minister Conger's salvation had lain in this fact. The speaker was not here to talk politics, but he would say, and his experience had taught him to be an expansionist, and that expansion was right. We were there and we should stay and do our duty. It was right to mediate in Cuba. It is right to mediate in China. It was God's cause and for the commercial good of the whole world.

At War With Herself.

China was at war with herself. There was no denying that, and the only solution for the dominion was western civilization. The emperor of Germany has been criticized severely for his views, but he was the only man who had yet fathomed the question and found the true solution. His plan to take no prisoners was severe, but was the only way to go about it, as extreme measures were absolutely necessary.

Our armies were in Peking and they should stay there. There were tens of thousands of Chinamen who would embrace the Christian religion were they not afraid. The empress should be done away with, hung if necessary. Prince Tuan restored to power and China would work out her own destiny. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society has played a great part in the salvation of China, and were destined to be an important factor in its future. God's hand was moving in the matter. Give the praise to God. The time is coming when the call will be to go to greater fields than the world has ever known.

Closing Exercises.

After the address Miss Grace Dawson sang a very beautiful solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord."

Then the president, Mrs. Davis, announced that a Methodist meeting was not complete without a collection and for that reason would be taken to defray the expense of programs and other incidentals. A generous response was asked.

The morning meeting was announced for 9:30 and a statement made that gentlemen visitors would be especially welcome at all sessions of the convention.

BUSINESS OF THE MORNING SESSION.

The morning session opened promptly at 9:30, with the singing of hymn 923, followed by devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Matlack, who read a portion of Isaiah for the scripture lesson.

For the accommodation of the ladies who wished to visit the potteries the time for closing the morning session was placed at 12 o'clock.

Minutes of the Tuesday evening, Wednesday afternoon and evening meetings were read and approved, after which reports were read from the following conference secretaries:

East Ohio, by Mrs. J. R. Walls; West Virginia, Mrs. J. R. Rose. The latter report showed the phenomenal increase of $1,185 20. Mrs. Blies read the report from Kentucky, which showed an increase of $220 31.

The report of the general conference was read by Mrs. Barnes, recording secretary; Central Ohio, Mrs. W. O. Seemans.

The report from the Woman's Missionary Friend was read by Mrs. Payne and showed an increase of 259 subscriptions over last year.

Mrs. B. F. Jackson presented the following resolution:

"In order to stimulate to a wider adoption of the prescribed missionary reading course; be it

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of each district secretary to report to the committee on the Woman's Friend at branch meeting the names of all members in her district who have read the course for that year, and that the report shall be read and also printed in the annual report of the branch."

This was amended by a motion of Mrs. Matlack to read: "And also to be read at the district meetings." The resolution as amended was adopted.

The by-law committee reported several changes to the by-laws and constitution.

Mrs. Mitchell and four others offered this resolution:

"Owing to the increasing importance of the depository of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society at the branch headquarters in Cincinnati and the arduous duties of some of the branch officers, we recommend that some one be employed to give her time to the care of the depository, rendering such clerical and other aid as the branch officers may require."

The resolution was adopted.

The committee appointed for the purpose of nominating branch officers made the following report:

President, Mrs. Wm. D. Davis, Cincinnati.

Recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Barnes, Springfield.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. R. Cowen.

Receiving treasurer, Mrs. John C. Kunz.

Distributing treasurer, Mrs. Charles C. Boyd.

These officers will be voted for this afternoon.

Notes of the Convention.

An old-fashioned class meeting will be held this evening from 6:30 o'clock until 7:50. All delegates and friends are requested to be present.

Russia had been particularly grasping, and these things undoubtedly had something to do with the difficulties now being contended with in that country. He would not pretend to give all the causes. No one could do that. China was not only at war with the world, but with herself.

Some 250 years ago the Tartars, a warlike nation, succeeded in overthrowing the Chinese government, and since that time have controlled China absolutely. It was to defend themselves against the Tartars that the great wall was built. But it didn't serve the purpose. From that time until the present outbreak China has been as completely under the control of a foreign power as was Cuba. As soon as the Tartars were established rightly they inaugurated a system of service. All the principal offices were distributed among the Tartars. The 18 provinces in China were thronged with from 10,000 to 50,000 Tartar spies and emissaries. A few of the minor civil offices were given to Chinamen of royal blood, such, for example, as Li Hung Lang and Wu. These men owed their prominence to the Tartars. Every favor and every courtesy accorded these Chinamen of royal blood was bestowed by the Tartars. Is it any wonder they were true to their government?

Origin of the Boxers.

About this time the intelligent of the Chinamen formed a fraternal secret society, which had for its primary object the overthrow of the Tartar government. This society had representatives all over the country, and were active at all times. The name of this society was changed from time to time in order to avoid being apprehended by the government officials. These names were always taken with the purpose in view of disarming suspicion as to its true purpose. The first name adopted was

Li Ho Chang, which meant righteousness, peace and industry.

This was the beginning of the Boxers. An error had evidently been made in interpreting the meaning of the word Le Ho Chang, as the latter part of the word stood for palm, and whoever hit upon the word Boxer had taken it to mean fist instead of the palm. The fact that the members of this society were recognized as a gymnastic organization was another reason, perhaps, for the interpretation. The Chinese soldier is said to get his courage to a high pitch by a series of gymnastics. It is like this: A Chinese soldier takes as his god the soul of some departed hero, and in this manner may be preserved through battle, provided he can get possession of the soul. This requires many gymnastic evolutions, and occurs previous to every battle—another reason, possibly, for the name Boxer.

During the 40 years of Hang Pah's reign he never had an offspring to his true wife, and when he died he left but one son, and that to one of his numerous concubines. This woman, together with the true wife, ruled China by regent for many years. The real wife is described as a weak, submissive creature, while the mother was precisely opposite in disposition, being a keen, mercenary and hard-hearted woman. The boy succeeded to the throne two years later, having married in the meantime. He died soon after and then there were three regents. The true empress and the wife of the old emperor did not survive long, and it is an undeniable fact that they were murdered by the old emperor's concubine. This is the woman who is today terrorizing the entire nation, the present empress dowager.

She then had everything in her own hands and proceeded to make the best of the situation. A meeting of the royal princes was called for the purpose of selecting a successor to the throne, the bony Tuan Twang being the next of kin, but he did not suit the scheming woman, as he had, young as he was, succeeded in exerting great power among the people. The dowager empress, however, still had sufficient influence to have another boy, much younger than he, appointed. This enabled her to retain control for some time. The boy was kept in the background until Tuan succeeded to power. The empress then remained behind the scenes until two years ago. Things moved on until China and Japan went to war. This was a Great Blessing to China.

The trouble was the lesson was not severe enough; China needed reform—something radical.

Two years ago a number of young students, realizing the need of reform conceived the idea of writing the emperor, Tuan, feeling that he was in position to know the wants and needs of the people. These young men in a majority of cases had been educated by the Christian missionaries. The intelligence imparted by these communications had the effect of opening the eyes of the emperor, and he took immediate steps to carry out the suggestions. He issued with the end in view of giving the common people a better opportunity to gain knowledge, ordering all unoccupied temples converted into schools. Geography was introduced and a great rush was made to take advantage of the opportunity for education.

This displeased the empress and she took steps to put the young emperor out of the way, as it was not her intention to have her subjects educated. He was put in prison and has remained a captive ever since.

Dealt With Chinese Politics.

The speaker dealt at some length on Chinese politics, describing the method of education to fit themselves for official positions; stating that only the rich could take advantage of the opportunities for learning, owing to the length of time required to fit themselves to be statesmen and the expense incurred. Their civil service policy was rotten to the core.

This same society, instituted 250 years ago, was still in existence when this great question of reform was uppermost in the minds of the true Chinamen. This was the real cause of the Boxer outbreak. The empress was apprehensive. She could see the inevitable and took steps to guard against the invasion of the foreign devils and native Christians. Since the Japanese war their rice has been exported, and this was taken advantage of in order to raise sufficient revenue to equip the army.

Hard Times in China

was the result. Japan had money to pay for the rice and wanted it. The price went up, but wages remained the same or lower, so that the outlook of the Boxers was really a mammoth strike. By a clever piece of diplomacy this woman succeeded in directing the wrath of the revolutionists against the foreigners instead of toward the real source of their troubles.

Dewey Gave China Joy.

When the news of Dewey's achievement reached China it carried a thrill of joy on the part of all Americans and Christian nations there, as they felt it was God's doing, and was coming nearer China, to work out their destiny. The speaker said when the Chinese question is ultimately settled America will be the most influential to that end.

America don't want territory, and the Chinese know it. They see in us a true friend, who has only their welfare at heart. Minister Conger's salvation had lain in this fact. The speaker was not here to talk politics, but he would say, and his experience had taught him to be an expansionist, and that expansion was right. We were there and we should stay and do our duty. It was right to mediate in Cuba. It is right to mediate in China. It was God's cause and for the commercial good of the whole world.

At War With Herself.

China was at war with herself. There was no denying that, and the only solution for the dominion was western civilization. The emperor of Germany has been criticized severely for his views, but he was the only man who had yet fathomed the question and found the true solution. His plan to take no prisoners was severe, but was the only way to go about it, as extreme measures were absolutely necessary.

Our armies were in Peking and they should stay there. There were tens of thousands of Chinamen who would embrace the Christian religion were they not afraid. The empress should be done away with, hung if necessary. Prince Tuan restored to power and China would work out her own destiny. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society has played a great part in the salvation of China, and were destined to be an important factor in its future. God's hand was moving in the matter. Give the praise to God. The time is coming when the call will be to go to greater fields than the world has ever known.

Closing Exercises.

After the address Miss Grace Dawson sang a very beautiful solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord."

Then the president, Mrs. Davis, announced that a Methodist meeting was not complete without a collection and for that reason would be taken to defray the expense of programs and other incidentals. A generous response was asked.

The morning meeting was announced for 9:30 and a statement made that gentlemen visitors would be especially welcome at all sessions of the convention.

BUSINESS OF THE MORNING SESSION.

The morning session opened promptly at 9:30, with the singing of hymn 923, followed by devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Matlack, who read a portion of Isaiah for the scripture lesson.

For the accommodation of the ladies who wished to visit the potteries the time for closing the morning session was placed at 12 o'clock.

Minutes of the Tuesday evening, Wednesday afternoon and evening meetings were read and approved, after which reports were read from the following conference secretaries:

East Ohio, by Mrs. J. R. Walls; West Virginia, Mrs. J. R. Rose. The latter report showed the phenomenal increase of $1,185 20. Mrs. Biles read the report from Kentucky, which showed an increase of $220 31.

The report of the general conference was read by Mrs. Barnes, recording secretary; Central Ohio, Mrs. W. O. Seemans.

The report from the Woman's Missionary Friend was read by Mrs. Payne and showed an increase of 259 subscriptions over last year.

Mrs. B. F. Jackson presented the following resolution:

"In order to stimulate to a wider adoption of the prescribed missionary reading course; be it

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of each district secretary to report to the committee on the Woman's Friend at branch meeting the names of all members in her district who have read the course for that year, and that the report shall be read and also printed in the annual report of the branch."

This was amended by a motion of Mrs. Matlack to read: "And also to be read at the district meetings." The resolution as amended was adopted.

The by-law committee reported several changes to the by-laws and constitution.

Mrs. Mitchell and four others offered this resolution:

"Owing to the increasing importance of the depository of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society at the branch headquarters in Cincinnati and the arduous duties of some of the branch officers, we recommend that some one be employed to give her time to the care of the depository, rendering such clerical and other aid as the branch officers may require."

The resolution was adopted.

The committee appointed for the purpose of nominating branch officers made the following report:

President, Mrs. Wm. D. Davis, Cincinnati.

Recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Barnes, Springfield.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. R. Cowen.

Receiving treasurer, Mrs. John C. Kunz.

Distributing treasurer, Mrs. Charles C. Boyd.

These officers will be voted for this afternoon.

The particulars related by this representative citizen of East Liverpool are similar to hundreds of others in this city. When there are scores of people, all anxious to tell about the benefits received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills are greatest skeptic in East Liverpool must be convinced. Read this:

Mr. G. H. Garner, the well known manufacturer of ice cream at 168 Jackson street, says: "My trouble set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor and I was annoyed a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt, generally used up. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them and I procured a box at W. & W. pharmacy. I did not take over half of it before I was entirely free from my trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I recommended them to many of my friends, among them P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms."

A WAY THEY HAVE.

What This East Liverpool Citizen Says Only Corroborates the Story of Thousands.

The particulars related by this representative citizen of East Liverpool are similar to hundreds of others in this city. When there are scores of people, all anxious to tell about the benefits received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills are greatest skeptic in East Liverpool must be convinced. Read this:

Mr. G. H. Garner, the well known manufacturer of ice cream at 168 Jackson street, says: "My trouble set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor and I was annoyed a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt, generally used up. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them and I procured a box at W. & W. pharmacy. I did not take over half of it before I was entirely free from my trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I recommended them to many of my friends, among them P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms."

"Good Night."

How few women know what it is to have a good night; a night of sound, restful sleep. They smile and say "good night" in cheery tones, but when the chamber door closes behind them, the smiling mask drops off, and shows the lines of suffering.

Other women have had the bad nights changed to good by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. So may you. Ninety-eight times in every hundred it perfectly cures diseases of the delicate womanly organs. It builds up the nervous system, puts flesh on the body and color on the cheek.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va., "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting their nerves to the shock of an examination. 'I was all run down in health—could not work but a short while without resting. Was so nervous at times that I could not even write; had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case. I received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

DEMOCRACY ON THE TRUST

Issue—Every Line of Legislation
Against the Trusts of the Nation

WERE PLACED THERE BY

The Republicans, and the Democrats Voted Against a Constitutional Amendment.

AIMING TO REGISTER THEM

Bryan and his followers are shown up in their true light on the Trust question when facts and figures are thrust upon them, and the great mass of voters of the country are laughing at them for placing themselves in an absurd position. The Democratic leaders voted against granting unto congress the right to control and regulate trusts and then, with unblushing effrontery and infinite cheek, blame the Republicans who stood in favor of regulating and controlling them.

Every line of legislation now on the statute books of the United States directed against trusts and unlawful trade combinations was placed there by the Republicans.

That there is not more stringent law against them is the fault of the Democratic party.

The last occasion on which the parties, as represented in congress, went on record on the trust question was on June 1, 1900.

On that day a final vote was taken on a constitutional amendment to grant congress power to "define, regulate, prohibit and dissolve trusts, monopolies and combinations in the form of corporations or otherwise."

It requires a two-thirds vote of congress to submit a constitutional amendment to the state legislatures for ratification.

The question to so submit it was lost by a vote of 154 yeas to 132 nays.

Of the yeas 149 were Republicans and only 5 were Democrats. The five were Campbell, of Montana; Napphen and Taylor, of Massachusetts; Scudder, of New York, and Sibley, of Pennsylvania.

Of the 132 nays only two were Republicans, Loud and McCall.

Richardson, Lentz, Sulzer, Ruppert, Salmon and all other "trust killers" voted nay. They declined to give congress the power to grapple with the trusts. The Democrats indulged in spasms of virtue for two days, denouncing the trusts, and then voted to continue them.

In one of Mr. Bryan's recent speeches he gave the Republican remedy as the final one he would adopt, in case he was elected and all other means failed.

In other words Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to try other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York ice trust, operate in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the federal law was denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic.

Denouncing is one thing. Doing is another. Mr. Bryan's trust denunciations, in view of his party's record, promise no better than the prophecies he made four years ago, and as a prophet Mr. Bryan has not succeeded.

Senator Jones and the Sugar Trust. The Democrats made another brilliant pro-trust record during the same session of congress. Representative

Richardson, of Tennessee, Democrat, tried to assist the sugar trust by offering a joint resolution to admit Cuban and Porto Rican sugar free of duty.

The remission of that duty would have amounted to about $25,000,000 a year, and the sugar trust would have benefited to the amount of at least $15,000,000 a year. The controller of the sugar trust is Henry O. Havemeyer, Democrat. Mr. Richardson's proposed gift to his friend, Mr. Havemeyer, was smothered in the ways and means committee of the house. This was done by the Republican members of the committee.

It was also proposed by Senator Jones, Democratic National chairman and Mr. Bryan's manager, to return the duties paid on Porto Rican sugar and molasses, not to the Porto Ricans, but to the persons who paid these duties.

This amounted at the time to $1,487,866. Had the scheme succeeded, the American Sugar Refining company and A. S. Lasalles & Co., a part of the same concern, would have benefited by a direct gift of $1,250,774. This is the first instance on record where a direct gift was intended to be made to a trust, and the Democratic manager, Senator James K. Jones, wished to make it. This was also prevented by the Republicans.

The money was not to be returned to the Porto Ricans, as the duties now are, but to the sugar trust.

All the facts are printed in the Congressional Record and are a part of American history.

In other words Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to try other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York ice trust, operate in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the federal law was denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic.

Denouncing is one thing. Doing is another. Mr. Bryan's trust denunciations, in view of his party's record, promise no better than the prophecies he made four years ago, and as a prophet Mr. Bryan has not succeeded.

"Good Night."

How few women know what it is to have a good night; a night of sound, restful sleep. They smile and say "good night" in cheery tones, but when the chamber door closes behind them, the smiling mask drops off, and shows the lines of suffering.

Other women have had the bad nights changed to good by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. So may you. Ninety-eight times in every hundred it perfectly cures diseases of the delicate womanly organs. It builds up the nervous system, puts flesh on the body and color on the cheek.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va., "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting their nerves to the shock of an examination. I was all run down in health—could not work but a short while without resting. Was so nervous at times that I could not even write; had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case. I received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

THE NEWS REVIEW

DEMOCRACY ON THE TRUST

Issue—Every Line of Legislation
Against the Trusts of the Nation

WERE PLACED THERE BY

The Republicans, and the Democrats Voted Against a Constitutional Amendment.

AIMING TO REGISTER THEM

Bryan and his followers are shown up in their true light on the Trust question when facts and figures are thrust upon them, and the great mass of voters of the country are laughing at them for placing themselves in an absurd position. The Democratic leaders voted against granting unto congress the right to control and regulate trusts and then, with unblushing effrontery and infinite cheek, blame the Republicans who stood in favor of regulating and controlling them.

Every line of legislation now on the statute books of the United States directed against trusts and unlawful trade combinations was placed there by the Republicans.

That there is not more stringent law against them is the fault of the Democratic party.

The last occasion on which the parties, as represented in congress, went on record on the trust question was on June 1, 1900.

On that day a final vote was taken on a constitutional amendment to grant congress power to "define, regulate, prohibit and dissolve trusts, monopolies and combinations in the form of corporations or otherwise."

It requires a two-thirds vote of congress to submit a constitutional amendment to the state legislatures for ratification.

The question to so submit it was lost by a vote of 154 yeas to 132 nays.

Of the yeas 149 were Republicans and only 5 were Democrats. The five were Campbell, of Montana; Naphe and Taylor, of Massachusetts; Scudder, of New York, and Sibley, of Pennsylvania.

Of the 132 nays only two were Republicans, Loud and McCall.

Richardson, Lentz, Sulzer, Ruppert, Salmon and all other "trust killers" voted nay. They declined to give congress the power to grapple with the trusts. The Democrats indulged in spasms of virtue for two days, denouncing the trusts, and then voted to continue them.

In one of Mr. Bryan's recent speeches he gave the Republican remedy as the final one he would adopt, in case he was elected and all other means failed.

In other words Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to try other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York ice trust, operate in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the federal law was denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

REPUBLICANS.

Read the papers of your city, and note the columns thereof. None so blind as those who will not see. The man who is not for you is against you, and his cloven hoof will betray him in spite of all his cunning. Sneers and threats at Republicans do not come from friends. Do not nourish a viper at your hearthstone, lest it revive and sting you to industrial death.

THAT CALF STORY.

See the illustrated calf story in the show window of the News Review office. There is a wonderful history in the sketch. It very much amuses and edifies the Republican voter, and causes the average Bryanite to clench his teeth in rage, and then, figuratively speaking, rent a kicking machine and practice on himself. The picture is the essence of truth, embraced in a nutshell.

SPLENDID AUDIENCE.

There was a splendid audience present at the First M. E. church last night. One very noticeable feature was the large number of men in attendance. Everything moves like clock work. The presiding officers understand and perform their duties to a nicety. The lady ushers and collectors are models in their specialties. The interior of the edifice presents a charming appearance. You have a very cordial invitation to be present tonight.

FAIR WARNING.

Judge Hole and Prosecuting Attorney Brookes made it unpleasant for some very bad men and women of Columbiana county lately, lawbreakers, illegal sellers of intoxicants and keepers of houses of ill fame. Some of these despicable creatures paid heavy fines and costs. And now it is said, on good authority, that they are again engaged in their unlawful, disreputable and shameful traffic, attempting to recoup themselves for their losses, inflicted by the court. We give them fair warning that they are playing with edged tools, and that, in case they are again arraigned before the court at Lisbon, the penalties inflicted will astound them.

BAD NEWS.

The news from the anthracite coal mining region is very sad. One man shot to death, one fatally wounded and a number more or less severely injured is the story. The civil officers seem unable to cope with the maddened strikers, and the outlook is that the military arm of the state will be called upon. The order should be issued that every saloon in the region must be shut down until the termination of the difficulty. Cool heads and good judgment are very much needed there at the present time. Devil's broth has no business there at any time, and especially just now.

TRUST HOWLERS.

Bryanites are becoming desperate. "Militarism" and "imperialism" have become deadly boomerangs in their hands, and they are afraid to throw the weapons, fearful of injuring themselves; and they are right, as the great mass of voters of the nation have condemned the calamity howlers and are joining the ranks swelling around and about McKinley and Roosevelt. And now Bryan and his followers are trying to deceive the masses by howling against trusts, intimating that, because Republicans are in power, they are responsible for the trusts that are in existence over the land. The Congressional Record shows that, on June 1, 1900, 149 Republicans and 5 Democrats voted against the trusts, while 130 Democrats and 2 Republicans voted in favor of the trusts. Workingmen of the country, toilers everywhere, men of strong common sense, readers and thinkers, Bryan and his followers, the leaders of Democracy, seem to think that you cannot reason and judge for yourselves. Show these gentlemen that they are mistaken. Demonstrate that you are fully capable of taking care of your own interests. Let them know that McKinley has kept his promises of 1896 to the letter, and that you can safely trust him for another four years.

REV. DR. J. H. WORLEY.

Read the article in today's issue respecting China, the Boxers and the empress dowager. The reverend author has spent many years in China as a missionary, returning home only last December. He believes in the war with Spain as a providential issue. He believes in the retention of the Philippine islands. He believes in the United States retaining her place in China until the settlement of the present trouble. He does not believe in the dismemberment or partitioning of that great empire. He is a firm believer in expansion. He is in favor of the downfall of the empress dowager and would hold her immediately responsible for the massacre of the Europeans and native Christians. He believes in the open door of China, and prays that it may never again be closed to Christianity. He believes in lasting peace in that great country, even if we must have hot war to obtain this desired end. He states that the great reform party of China reveres and trusts and confides in the United States. He asserts that there was great joy in the ranks of the native reformers when Dewey won his noted victory at Manila, the reformers claiming that the downfall of the Spaniard in the archipelago was merely the initiatory step leading to grandly glorious things for China, the reformers claiming the United States soldiers as friends in time of great need. Read the speech. It will pay you to do so.

THREE ARRESTS MADE LAST NIGHT

Henry Scheckler and Frank George
Had a Pitched Battle on Second Street.

THEY WERE BOTH RUN IN

Mayor Davidson Assessed Them
Each $1 and Costs and They Will Pay Today.

A COMMON DRUNK CAPTURED

Three arrests were made last night in order to keep up business at city hall.

Henry Checkler, who resides in Chester, and Frank George, who lives in this city, had a wordy war on Second street last night. They were not able to control their tempers and when the proper time arrived they went at each other in the hammer and tong fashion. Neither of them had succeeded in doing any damage when Officers Aufderheide and Gill arrived on the scene.

They explained to the combatants that the city ordinance prohibited demonstrations of this kind on the streets and they would have to take a trip to the city jail. When Mayor Davidson heard their story he fined them each $1 and costs and they will call this afternoon and pay up.

D. Reece was a common drunk that Officer Bettridge gathered in last night. He was assessed $1 and costs, furnished the cash and was released.

STOCKHOLDERS MET.

An Effort Will be Made to Make a Success Out of the Gas
Plant.

The Gas Construction company met last evening in the Potters' club rooms and discussed matters of importance to the company.

At a meeting to be held next Thursday evening matters will be gone into in detail. We have assurance from a party who should be reliable that the failure of the concern lies in imperfections in the structure in the first place, when a false system of economy was followed. The inventor and those next of him say the concern could be made a flattering success, while a number of citizens who have been discussing the question, assert that the scheme is a visionary one, and is not susceptible of practical success. They assert the scheme was that of a visionary of visionaries, who is a dealer in flattering options. His investments as a rule have been very flattering for his own pocket and the direct opposite for his victims.

We have the assurance from one gentleman, said to be thoroughly posted in the manufacture of gas, that there is no doubt of the complete success of a venture of this kind if handled from its inception by practical men and not by mere visionaries or sharks, who are attempting to line their own pockets at the expense of the stockholders.

For the sake of the city at large and those who have invested large sums of money, the News Review expresses the desire that the future may yet prove a success in every particular.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or
that it must be maintained, I warn
him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than
I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon.
William Jennings Bryan in a speech
at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

REPUBLICANS.

Read the papers of your city, and note the columns thereof. None so blind as those who will not see. The man who is not for you is against you, and his cloven hoof will betray him in spite of all his cunning. Sneers and threats at Republicans do not come from friends. Do not nourish a viper at your hearthstone, lest it revive and sting you to industrial death.

THAT CALF STORY.

See the illustrated calf story in the show window of the News Review office. There is a wonderful history in the sketch. It very much amuses and edifies the Republican voter, and causes the average Bryanite to clench
his teeth in rage, and then, figuratively speaking, rent a kicking machine
and practice on himself. The picture is the essence of truth, embraced in a nutshell.

SPLENDID AUDIENCE.

There was a splendid audience present at the First M. E. church last night. One very noticeable feature was the large number of men in attendance. Everything moves like clock work. The presiding officers understand and perform their duties to a nicety. The lady ushers and collectors are models in their specialties.
The interior of the edifice presents a charming appearance. You have a very cordial invitation to be present
tonight.

FAIR WARNING.

Judge Hole and Prosecuting Attorney Brookes made it unpleasant for some very bad men and women of Columbiana county lately, lawbreakers,
illegal sellers of intoxicants and keepers of houses of ill fame. Some of these despicable creatures paid heavy fines and costs. And now it is said,
on good authority, that they are again
engaged in their unlawful, disreputable and shameful traffic, attempting to recoup themselves for their losses, inflicted by the court. We give them fair warning that they are playing
with edged tools, and that, in case

they are again arraigned before the court at Lisbon, the penalties inflicted will astound them.

BAD NEWS.

The news from the anthracite coal mining region is very sad. One man shot to death, one fatally wounded
and a number more or less severely injured is the story. The civil officers seem unable to cope with the maddened strikers, and the outlook is that the military arm of the state will be called upon. The order should be issued that every saloon in the region
must be shut down until the termination of the difficulty. Cool heads and good judgment are very much needed
there at the present time. Devil's broth has no business there at any time, and especially just now.

TRUST HOWLERS.

Bryanites are becoming desperate.
"Militarism" and "imperialism" have become deadly boomerangs in their hands, and they are afraid to throw
the weapons, fearful of injuring themselves; and they are right, as the great mass of voters of the nation
have condemned the calamity howlers and are joining the ranks swelling around and about McKinley and Roosevelt. And now Bryan and his followers are trying to deceive the masses by howling against trusts, intimating that, because Republicans
are in power, they are responsible for the trusts that are in existence over the land. The Congressional Record shows that, on June 1, 1900, 149 Republicans and 5 Democrats voted against the trusts, while 130 Democrats and 2 Republicans voted in favor of the trusts. Workingmen of the country, toilers everywhere, men of strong common sense, readers and thinkers, Bryan and his followers, the leaders of Democracy, seem to think that you cannot reason and judge for yourselves. Show these gentlemen that they are mistaken. Demonstrate that you are fully capable of taking care of your own interests. Let them know that McKinley has kept his promises of 1896 to the letter, and that you can safely trust him for another
four years.

REV. DR. J. H. WORLEY.

Read the article in today's issue respecting China, the Boxers and the empress dowager. The reverend author has spent many years in China
as a missionary, returning home only last December. He believes in the war with Spain as a providential issue. He believes in the retention of the Philippine islands. He believes in the United States retaining her place in China until the settlement of the present trouble. He does not believe in the dismemberment or partitioning of that great empire. He is a firm believer in expansion. He is in favor of the downfall of the empress
dowager and would hold her immediately responsible for the massacre of
the Europeans and native Christians.
He believes in the open door of China,
and prays that it may never again be closed to Christianity. He believes in lasting peace in that great country,
even if we must have hot war to obtain this desired end. He states that the great reform party of China reveres and trusts and confides in the United States. He asserts that there was great joy in the ranks of the native reformers when Dewey won his noted victory at Manila, the reformers
claiming that the downfall of the Spaniard in the archipelago was merely the initiator step leading to grandly glorious things for China, the reformers claiming the United States
soldiers as friends in time of great need. Read the speech. It will pay you to do so.

A COMMON DRUNK CAPTURED

Three arrests were made last night
in order to keep up business at city hall.

Henry Checkler, who resides in Chester, and Frank George, who lives
in this city, had a wordy war on Second street last night. They were not able to control their tempers and when the proper time arrived they went
at each other in the hammer and tong
fashion. Neither of them had succeeded in doing any damage when Officers Aufderheide and Gill arrived on the scene.

They explained to the combatants
that the city ordinance prohibited demonstrations of "this kind on the streets and they would have to take a trip to the city jail. When Mayor Davidson heard their story he fined them each $1 and costs and they will call this afternoon and pay up.

D. Reece was a common drunk that Officer Bettridge gathered in last night. He was assessed $1 and costs, furnished the cash and was released.

STOCKHOLDERS MET.

An Effort Will be Made to Make a Success Out of the Gas
Plant.

The Gas Construction company met
last evening in the Potters' club rooms
and discussed matters of importance to the company.

At a meeting to be held next Thursday evening matters will be gone into in detail. We have assurance from a party who should be reliable that
the failure of the concern lies in imperfections in the structure in the first place, when a false system of economy was followed. The inventor and those next to him say the concern
could be made a flattering success,
while a number of citizens who have been discussing the question, assert
that the scheme is a visionary one,
and is not susceptible of practical success. They assert the scheme was that of a visionary of visionaries, who is a dealer in flattering options. His investments as a rule have been very flattering for his own pocket and the direct opposite for his victims.

We have the assurance from one gentleman, said to be thoroughly posted in the manufacture of gas, that there is no doubt of the complete success of a venture of this kind if handled from its inception by practical men and not by mere visionaries or sharks, who are attempting to line
their own pockets at the expense of the stockholders.

For the sake of the city at large
and those who have invested large sums of money, the News Review expresses the desire that the future may yet prove a success in every particular.

EAST END. A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Runaway Team Came Near Ending the Life of John Spence.

A runoff occurred at the National pottery at 11:45 this morning, in which John Spence, who drives the city team in East End, narrowly escaped serious injury.

Robert Leeper, of near Hookstown, had stopped his team near the National and left them standing for a short time. While he was gone the horses became frightened at an approaching freight train and went down the road at a terrific pace. At the end of the alley just east of the George B. McKinnon restaurant they encountered the city wagon, driven by Spence, and loaded with broken ware to be used on the street. The second team could not stop and so they separated, one going on either side of the wagon ahead. Spence was sitting on the load when the collision occurred, and his horse and wagon were carried a distance of 25 yards.

The tongue of Leeper's wagon ran over the top of the city wagon and narrowly escaped Spence's head. The tongue was broken in several places and one of the traces was broken squarely in two. The horses were not hurt.

Steam Pipe Burst.

A steam pipe burst at the National pottery Tuesday night and caused considerable damage.

The pipe was used for heating purposes in the green room, and when it burst a great of ware was more or less damaged. Ware on every board in the stilliards was broken and the loss will amount to considerable. The damage was repaired yesterday.

YOUTSEY MAY BECOME INSANE.

Again Exclaimed There Was No Blood on His Hands.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 11.—Henry Youtsey has remained in a comatose condition. Whether that is due to the opiates administered to quiet him cannot be ascertained. He has answered no questions addressed to him by his nearest relatives and physicians but once or twice during the day he held up his hands and exclaimed: "There is no blood on my hands—there is no man's blood on my hands!"

He has kept his eyes closed and they were still slightly crossed as if drawn and set by the convulsion he had had. The only nourishment he has taken was a glass of milk, which was almost forced down his throat by the physicians. Dr. Carrick says he is in an extremely critical condition, which may take a sudden change for the better or worse at any moment, and if for the worse Youtsey will be permanently insane. He had not been to the juryroom in the courthouse last night, as directed by Judge Cantrill.

GIRL NAMED CARROLL MISSING.

She Was Used by Dr. Unger, as a Subject on Which to Take Out Insurance Policies—Brown Employed an Unusual Number of Stenographers.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Laura Carroll is named as another victim of the insurance conspiracy syndicate, said to be headed by Dr. August H. Unger. The physician used her, it is said, as a subject on whom to take out policies in a game similar to that which was attempted on Marie Defenbach. The Carroll woman disappeared four or five months ago, and none of those with whom she associated have seen her since. During her residence here she was an intimate friend of Miss Defenbach, and is alleged to have been a patient and sweetheart of Dr. Unger's. Miss Carroll was about 22 years of age. She was an orphan and had a guardian, Dr. Gustav Schmidt, living in Milwaukee, from which city she came here. During the six or seven months that F. Wayland Brown was managing the Mooney and Boland office here an unusual number of stenographers was employed. They were all women and all were employed by Brown. The subsequent disappearance of any of them is now deemed a matter worth looking into, as likely to show effort to defraud on a much larger scale than has yet been brought to light.

The subjects on which the Unger-Brown-Smyley syndicate secured insurance with fraudulent intent are all believed to be women, while the active members of the organization are men. There are indications that the organization has a much wider scope than was at first thought. It is asserted by detectives that at least two scores of people are criminally connected with it. One of those who is now under surveillance is a wealthy and prominent lawyer. He is alleged to be the financial backer.

GOV. ROOSEVELT STONED.

Hoodlums Attacked His Carriage at Ft. Wayne—Not Badly Hurt—Laughed Over the Matter.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Hoodlums of Ft. Wayne made an attack upon Governor Roosevelt in this city. In Calhoun street shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink, where the governor was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of stones at Colonel Roosevelt's carriage. One struck Governor Roosevelt on the shoulder and another, aimed at the governor, missed him and struck Colonel Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, in the face.

The governor was not hurt, and laughed the matter off. The horses attached to the governor's carriage were whipped up, and got away from the roughs, who offered no further violence, and used no bad or insulting language.

JONES HAS MEN IN OHIO.

Investigating Whether Employers Are Coercing Their Employees.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—A call will be issued by the Democratic national committee for a "grand rally" on Oct. 27 of all the Democratic clubs in the country. The day will be set apart as a Democratic field day.

Chairman Jones, of the national committee, said: "I intend to address a letter to the Democratic clubs all over the country, requesting them to give me the proof, in all instances that come within their knowledge, of employers undertaking to coerce or intimidate employees. I have now some men in Ohio for the purpose of ascertaining the conditions there. They are intelligent men, who are close observers, and I have instructed them to report carefully what facts they discover. Our people are thoroughly aroused to the danger in this direction and are determined to have an honest election."

WARM WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT.

Addressed Three Political Meetings at Ft. Wayne—Three Parades There.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Governor Roosevelt closed a busy day's work by making three speeches in this city last night, addressing the greatest number of persons in the aggregate who ever gathered in Ft. Wayne to listen to a political candidate. He was honored also with three large parades. The last stop prior to the arrival here was at Huntington, where a large illuminated parade was given. Reaching Ft. Wayne, the governor was driven immediately to the rink, where he was greeted with prolonged applause. Having delivered his address, he was escorted to a large tent especially erected for the occasion, where he made a second speech, and thence he went to Library hall, where he spoke for the third time. Others also spoke.

Bryan Made Number of Speeches—First Day's Tour in Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 11.—The weather for the first day of Mr. Bryan's tour of the state of Michigan was all that could be asked. He made 16 addresses. The towns in which he made speeches were as follows:

Michigan City, New Buffalo, Benton Harbor, Niles, Dowagiac, Lawton, Kalamazoo, Plainwell, Otsego, Allegan, Hamilton, Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon and Grand Rapids, two meetings having been held at the last-named place. The crowds were all complimentary in size as well as in the attention given.

Altgeld Addressed Yale Club.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 11.—The Yale Democratic club held its first rally of the campaign last night, when ex-Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, made the principal address. The affair was a great success, as Music hall, with a capacity of 2,500, was taxed to its utmost, and hundreds were unable to gain admission.

COMBINE OF THE ACCUSED.

Councilmen, at Cleveland, Will Resist in Court Committee's Right to Probe Into Alleged Wrongdoing.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The fact was revealed at the session of the city council bribery investigation committee that the Cleveland councilmen whose conduct has figured most prominently in the testimony have combined and their lawyers together will try to stop the inquiry. The right of the committee to call upon councilmen to testify will be tested in the courts. The testimony of President D.B. Steur, of the council, was required by the committee, and though a subpoena had been served upon him he failed to appear. The committee issued an attachment for him and he was brought in by a constable and placed upon the witness stand. He refused to answer questions upon advice of his attorney. The committee then ordered him committed to the county jail for contempt of court. The half dozen lawyers engaged by councilmen had already prepared for this, however, and they obtained his release at once on a writ of habeas corpus, which will be considered by Judge Dellenbaugh, of the common pleas court today. The lawyers declare that the committee is acting illegally, and that they will put an end to its proceedings. Councilman White had also been subpoenaed, and he also failed to appear. He was brought in by a constable. He said he was the secretary of a storage company, but refused to give the names of any of the stockholders. When asked whether he were not in himself the entire company he answered in the negative. After some feeling he admitted that the building used by the storage concern is owned by the Big Consolidated Street Railway company. To the question whether he did not use the building free of rent he answered, "I pay all the rent they ask of me."

A LIBERAL PRESBYTERY.

Recommended Attack on Pope in Confession Be Stricken Out—Stand by Westminster Creed.

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The presbytery of San Francisco decided to stand by the Westminster confession of faith. As a concession to the revisionists the presbytery agreed to the alteration of the phrasing of the sections relating to predestination, foreordination and infant damnation. It was further recommended that the section referring to the pope as anti-Christ be stricken out and that the ban against the intermarriage between Presbyterians and the papists be removed.

MONEY FOR CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Large Sums For Endowment; Also Establishment of Chairs.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Cardinal Gibbons, the chairman of the board of trustees of the Catholic University of America, presided at the annual meeting of that body in McMahon hall. Archbishop Keane reported that during the year he had secured $70,000 for general expenses and $300,000 in pledges for the endowment. He will be compelled to relinquish further labors for the university, because of his new duties as archbishop of Dubuque.

Rector Conaty stated that during the year he had received $50,000 in cash, part for current expenses and part for endowment of chairs. The rector also reported that $61,000 in other subscriptions would be available this year.

A REPLY BY BRYAN.

Says 13th Amendment Don't Interfere With Sulu Treaty, Due to Administration's Policy.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 11.—Hon. W. J. Bryan took cognizance of the letter sent to him by Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn. The reply says:

"I am in receipt of your favor of the 6th in regard to the Sulu treaty. It is true that the president two months after the signing of the treaty sent to General Otis the instructions which you quote. You will note that the treaty, or agreement, as the president describes it, was confirmed and approved subject to the action of congress, and the only exception that he made was in regard to article 10 relating to slavery. You can but know, however, that since the president sent those instructions the Republican party, with the approval of the administration, has adopted the theory that the constitution does not follow the flag, and, therefore, the thirteenth amendment does not interfere with slavery in the Sulu archipelago.

"The Porto Rican law asserts the doctrine that the people of Porto Rico are beyond the protection of the constitution and can be governed by the arbitrary and unrestrained power of the president and congress. If the constitution itself cannot reach the West Indies, how can the thirteenth amendment find its way across the Pacific into Asia? The president does not repudiate article 13, which reads as follows: 'The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects if any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.'"

"In view of the fact that the president in his letter of acceptance declares it dangerous for us to agree to protect a Christian republic in the Philippine islands, would it not be wise for him to withdraw the agreement to protect a Mohammedan island. The agreement does not repudiate article 14, which reads as follows: 'The United States will not sell the island of Sulu or any other island without the consent of the sultan of Sulu.'"

"If we buy all the Philippine islands from Spain without the consent of the inhabitants is it fair that we should agree not to sell any of the Sulu islands without the consent of the sultan? In other words, it is more important that a sultan's wishes should be considered than that the interests of the rest of the people should be regarded? Very respectfully yours, "W. J. Bryan."

HARRISON WON'T CAMPAIGN

Quit It After 1896 Contest—His Position as to Porto Rico—Opposed to Bryan.

Nw York, Oct. 11.—General Benjamin Harrison gave out an interview and statement in which he said he had quit campaigning with the campaign of 1896, and would do no more work of that nature.

"But, general, it is said that you are not altogether in accord with your party?" was asked.

General Harrison replied in part: "Well, I have heard that my silence was imputed by some to that cause. Now, the only public utterance I have made in criticism of the policies of the party was contained in the interview, consisting of one rather short sentence that I gave to the newspapers while the Porto Rico bill was pending. It was in substance that I regarded the bill as a grave departure from the right principles. I still think so. I do not believe that the legislative power of congress in the territories is absolute—and I do believe that the revenue clause relating to duties and imposts applies to Porto Rico. These views I know are not held by many able lawyers. It is a legal question—one that the political departments of the government cannot fully adjudge. The final and controlling word upon this question is with the supreme court of the United States.

"The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie hall speech in 1898 why Mr. Bryan should not be elected still hold good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental and business affairs into confusion. We should not aid the election of a president who would, admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value even more, upon the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound, and that the Republican party will, after defeat, still have strength enough to save the temple. It will be much better not to allow the man with destructive tendencies so much as to lean against its pillars."

Tact is being more and more recognized as a valuable instrument in man's welfare and happiness.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The committee issued an attachment for him and he was brought in by a constable and placed upon the witness stand. He refused to answer questions upon advice of his attorney. The committee then ordered him committed to the county jail for contempt of court. The half dozen lawyers engaged by councilmen had already prepared for this, however, and they obtained his release at once on a writ of habeas corpus, which will be considered by Judge Dellenbaugh, of the common pleas court today. The lawyers declare that the committee is acting illegally, and that they will put an end to its proceedings. Councilman White had also been subpoenaed, and he also failed to appear. He was brought in by a constable. He said he was the secretary of a storage company, but refused to give the names of any of the stockholders. When asked whether he were not in himself the entire company he answered in the negative. After some feinting he admitted that the building used by the storage concern is owned by the Big Consolidated Street Railway company. To the question whether he did not use the building free of rent he answered, "I pay all the rent they ask of me."

A LIBERAL PRESBYTERY.

Recommended Attack on Pope in Confession Be Stricken Out—Stand by Westminster Creed.

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The presbytery of San Francisco decided to stand by the Westminster confession of faith. As a concession to the revisionists the presbytery agreed to the alteration of the phrasing of the sections relating to predestination, foreordination and infant damnation. It was further recommended that the section referring to the pope as anti-Christ be stricken out and that the ban against the intermarriage between Presbyterians and the papists be removed.

A REPLY BY BRYAN.

Says 13th Amendment Don't Interfere With Sulu Treaty, Due to Administration's Policy.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 11.—Hon. W. J. Bryan took cognizance of the letter sent to him by Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn. The reply says:

"I am in receipt of your favor of the 6th in regard to the Sulu treaty. It is true that the president two months after the signing of the treaty sent to General Otis the instructions which you quote. You will note that the treaty, or agreement, as the president describes it, was confirmed and approved subject to the action of congress, and the only exception that he made was in regard to article 10 relating to slavery. You can but know, however, that since the president sent those instructions the Republican party, with the approval of the administration, has adopted the theory that the constitution does not follow the flag, and, therefore, the thirteenth amendment does not interfere with slavery in the Sulu archipelago.

"The Porto Rico law asserts the doctrine that the people of Porto Rico are beyond the protection of the constitution and can be governed by the arbitrary and unrestrained power of the president and congress. If the constitution itself cannot reach the West Indies, how can the thirteenth amendment find its way across the Pacific into Asia? The president does not repudiate article 13, which reads as follows: 'The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects if any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.'"

"In view of the fact that the president in his letter of acceptance declares it dangerous for us to agree to protect a Christian republic in the Philippine islands, would it not be wise for him to withdraw the agreement to protect a Mohammedan island. The agreement does not repudiate article 14, which reads as follows: 'The United States will not sell the island of Sulu or any other island without the consent of the sultan of Sulu.'"

"If we buy all the Philippine islands from Spain without the consent of the inhabitants is it fair that we should agree not to sell any of the Sulu islands without the consent of the sultan? In other words, it is more important that a sultan's wishes should be considered than that the interests of the rest of the people should be regarded? Very respectfully yours, 'W. J. Bryan.'"

HARRISON WON'T CAMPAIGN

Quit It After 1896 Contest—His Position as to Porto Rico—Opposed to Bryan.

Nw York, Oct. 11.—General Benjamin Harrison gave out an interview and statement in which he said he had quit campaigning with the campaign of 1896, and would do no more work of that nature.

"But, general, it is said that you are not altogether in accord with your party?" was asked.

General Harrison replied in part: "Well, I have heard that my silence was imputed by some to that cause. Now, the only public utterance I have made in criticism of the policies of the party was contained in the interview, consisting of one rather short sentence that I gave to the newspapers while the Porto Rico bill was pending. It was in substance that I regarded the bill as a grave departure from the right principles. I still think so. I do not believe that the legislative power of congress in the territories is absolute—and I do believe that the revenue clause relating to duties and imposts applies to Porto Rico. These views I know are not held by many able lawyers. It is a legal question—one that the political departments of the government cannot fully adjudge. The final and controlling word upon this question is with the supreme court of the United States.

"The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie hall speech in 1898 why Mr. Bryan should not be elected still hold good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental and business affairs into confusion. We should not aid the election of a president who would, admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value even more, upon the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound, and that the Republican party will, after defeat, still have strength enough to save the temple. It will be much better not to allow the man with destructive tendencies so much as to lean against its pillars."

MURDERS FOR MONEY

Probably Other Victims of Insurance Frauds.

GIRL NAMED CARROLL MISSING.

She Was Used by Dr. Unger, as a Subject on Which to Take Out Insurance Policies—Brown Employed an Unusual Number of Stenographers.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Laura Carroll is named as another victim of the insurance conspiracy syndicate, said to be headed by Dr. August H. Unger. The physician used her, it is said, as a subject on whom to take out policies in a game similar to that which was attempted on Marie Defenbach. The Carroll woman disappeared four or five months ago, and none of those with whom she associated have seen her since. During her residence here she was an intimate friend of Miss Defenbach, and is alleged to have been a patient and sweetheart of Dr. Unger's. Miss Carroll was about 22 years of age. She was an orphan and had a guardian, Dr. Gustav Schmidt living in Milwaukee, from which city she came here. During the six or seven months that F. Wayland Brown was managing the Mooney and Boland office here an unusual number of stenographers was employed. They were all women and all were employed by Brown. The subsequent disappearance of any of them is now deemed a matter worth looking into, as likely to show effort to defraud on a much larger scale than has yet been brought to light.

The subjects on which the Unger-Brown-Simley syndicate secured insurance with fraudulent intent are all believed to be women, while the active members of the organization are men. There are indications that the organization has a much wider scope than was at first thought. It is asserted by detectives that at least two scores of people are criminally connected with it. One of those who is now under surveillance is a wealthy and prominent lawyer. He is alleged to be the financial backer.

GOV. ROOSEVELT STONED.

Hoodlums Attacked His Carriage at Ft. Wayne—Not Badly Hurt—Laughed Over the Matter.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Hoodlums of Ft. Wayne made an attack upon Governor Roosevelt in this city. In Calhoun street shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink, where the governor was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of stones at Colonel Roosevelt's carriage. One struck Governor Roosevelt on the shoulder and another, aimed at the governor, missed him and struck Colonel Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, in the face.

The governor was not hurt, and laughed the matter off. The horses attached to the governor's carriage were whipped up, and got away from the roughs, who offered no further violence, and used no bad or insulting language.

JONES HAS MEN IN OHIO.

Investigating Whether Employers Are Coercing Their Employees.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—A call will be issued by the Democratic national committee for a "grand rally" on Oct. 27 of all the Democratic clubs in the country. The day will be set apart as a Democratic field day.

Chairman Jones, of the national committee, said: "I intend to address a letter to the Democratic clubs all over the country, requesting them to give me the proof, in all instances that come within their knowledge, of employers undertaking to coerce or intimidate employees. I have now some men in Ohio for the purpose of ascertaining the conditions there. They are intelligent men, who are close observers, and I have instructed them to report carefully what facts they discover. Our people are thoroughly aroused to the danger in this direction and are determined to have an honest election."

WARM WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT.

Addressed Three Political Meetings at Ft. Wayne—Three Parades There.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Governor Roosevelt closed a busy day's work by making three speeches in this city last night, addressing the greatest number of persons in the aggregate who ever gathered in Ft. Wayne to listen to a political candidate. He was honored also with three large parades.

The last stop prior to the arrival here was at Huntington, where a large illuminated parade was given. Reaching Ft. Wayne, the governor was driven immediately to the rink, where he was greeted with prolonged applause. Having delivered his address, he was escorted to a large tent especially erected for the occasion, where he made a second speech, and thence he went to Library hall, where he spoke for the third time. Others also spoke.

CROWDS COMPLIMENTARY IN SIZE

Bryan Made Number of Speeches—First Day's Tour in Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 11.—The weather for the first day of Mr. Bryan's tour of the state of Michigan was all that could be asked. He made 16 addresses. The towns in which he made speeches were as follows:

Michigan City, New Buffalo, Benton Harbor, Niles, Dowagiac, Lawton, Kalamazoo, Plainwell, Otsego, Allegan, Hamilton, Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon and Grand Rapids, two meetings having been held at the last-named place. The crowds were all complimentary in size as well as in the attention given.

Altgeld Addressed Yale Club.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 11.—The Yale Democratic club held its first rally of the campaign last night, when ex-Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, made the principal address. The affair was a great success, as Music hall, with a capacity of 2,500, was taxed to its utmost, and hundreds were unable to gain admission.

COMBINE OF THE ACCUSED.

Councilmen, at Cleveland, Will Resist In Court Committee's Right to Probe Into Alleged Wrongdoing.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The fact was revealed at the session of the city council bribery investigation committee that the Cleveland councilmen whose conduct has figured most prominently in the testimony have combined and their lawyers together will try to stop the inquiry. The right of the committee to call upon councilmen to testify will be tested in the courts. The testimony of President D.B. Steur, of the council, was required by the committee, and though a subpoena had been served upon him he failed to appear. The committee issued an attachment for him and he was brought in by a constable and placed upon the witness stand. He refused to answer questions upon advice of his attorney. The committee then ordered him committed to the county jail for contempt of court. The half dozen lawyers engaged by councilmen had already prepared for this, however, and they obtained his release at once on a writ of habeas corpus, which will be considered by Judge Dellenbaugh, of the common pleas court today. NEW REVOLT FEARED.

Chinese Likely to Arise In Southern Provinces.

MORE TROOPS FOR HONGKONG.

Hongkong, Oct. 11.—It is said that the authorities here have received information that a general rising in the southern provinces has been planned for the month of November. Ten thousand more troops from India have been requisitioned for Hongkong. The Sixteenth Bengal Lancers and the Hongkong regiment have been recalled from the north to Hongkong. The present indications are that there will be a Boxer rising similar to that which occurred in North China. The whereabouts of the rebels in the Hinterland is not known, but is believed to be 10 miles north of the British borders. A detachment of 1,000 Chinese troops took up a position at San Chung and 1,000 more will arrive.

London, Oct. 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated Oct. 9, says: "The Triads have men and repeatedly defeated the imperial troops near Kowloon. They are daily gaining fresh adherents. Heavy Russian reinforcements are moving northward from Port Arthur, with the object of relieving pressure upon Mukden. Every place of importance in Manchuria, from Kiatka to the Primorsk boundary and from the Amur to the Great Wall, is now in Russian hands."

Tien Tsin, Oct. 11.—A military order has been issued to the German troops to occupy the railroad from Yang Tsun to Peking. The rest of the road will be occupied by the Russians and the harbor of Ching Wan Tao has been allotted to the British. A detachment of 800 French troops, with six guns, started yesterday morning to relieve the Catholic priests who are held prisoners at Ching Hsien, 60 miles south. A detachment of 300 French troops started in the direction of Pao Ting Fu Saturday to co-operate with 400 troops reported to have left Peking. It is understood that Field Marshal Count von Waldersee refused to acknowledge Li Jung's visit Friday. The field marshal goes to Peking in a few days.

MEETING CRISIS BRAVELY.

Missionaries Will Continue Work In China, According to Reports to American Mission Board.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Several hundred officers, charter members, missionaries and workers of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, together with many prominent ministers and lay workers in Congregational churches of the country, met in Pilgrim Congregational church for a three days' session. The event that occasioned the gathering was the ninety-first annual meeting of the board, which is holding its most important session since 1810, the date of organization. The crisis in China and the famine in India, two of the largest fields, bring before the board conditions never before met by the body.

Judging from the reports made on China, the crisis is being met bravely and with the determination of continuing the work, notwithstanding the massacre of missionaries and destruction of mission property.

The presence of many missionaries from foreign fields and the reports given by them at the afternoon session gave added interest to the proceedings. Reports of officers and missionaries were the order of the day.

REPLY MADE TO FRANCE.

Believed a Favorable View Was Taken of Some Suggestions.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the United States government to the latest note from France offering suggestions as to the settlement of the troubles in China was completed and delivered to M. Thiebaut, charge d'affaires of the French embassy. By him it was forwarded immediately to his government.

No official statement of the contents of the answer was obtainable. Following its inflexible rule, the state department declined to make public the text of the communication or to make any statement of the nature of its contents, until opportunity had been afforded for its reception by the French foreign office.

It is believed, however, to take a favorable view of the suggestions submitted by the French government. In a general way, although it does not commit this government to all of them.

CARNEGIE SHIPS FOR EUROPE.

Will Sail From Conneaut, O., With Steel, to Liverpool.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The Carnegie Steel company has taken the first step toward the building up of all-water transportation of export steel from Lake Erie ports to Europe, in chartering four vessels to load with steel at Conneaut, O., and steam through via the Welland canal and the St. Lawrence to Liverpool.

Their capacity is about 2,500 tons each, on 18 feet of water. It is the intention to load each vessel with 1,000 tons of steel at Conneaut, and fill out at Montreal with 1,500 tons of wood pulp. Going through the Welland canal the vessels will draw only 12 feet, though 14 feet draught is possible.

Prohibitionists Reached Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11. — John G. Woolley and party, on board the Prohibition special train, arrived here and concluded the run across Michigan with an evening meeting at the Light Guard armory. The special made a total of eight stops. Meetings were held at Buchanan, Dowagiac, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Albion, Jackson and Ann Arbor, a warm reception being encountered at each stop.

NEW REVOLT FEARED.

Chinese Likely to Arise in Southern Provinces.

MORE TROOPS FOR HONGKONG.

Hongkong, Oct. 11.—It is said that the authorities here have received information that a general rising in the southern provinces has been planned for the month of November. Ten thousand more troops from India have been requisitioned for Hongkong. The Sixteenth Bengal Lancers and the Hongkong regiment have been recalled from the north to Hongkong. The present indications are that there will be a Boxer rising similar to that which occurred in North China. The whereabouts of the rebels in the Hinterland is not known, but is believed to be 10 miles north of the British borders. A detachment of 1,000 Chinese troops took up a position at San Chung and 1,000 more will arrive.

London, Oct. 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated Oct. 9, says: "The Triads have men and repeatedly defeated the imperial troops near Kowloon. They are daily gaining fresh adherents. Heavy Russian reinforcements are moving northward from Port Arthur, with the object of relieving pressure upon Mukden. Every place of importance in Manchuria, from Kiatka to the Primorsk boundary and from the Amur to the Great Wall, is now in Russian hands."

Tien Tsin, Oct. 11.—A military order has been issued to the German troops to occupy the railroad from Yang Tsun to Peking. The rest of the road will be occupied by the Russians and the harbor of Ching War Tao has been allotted to the British. A detachment of 800 French troops, with six guns, started yesterday morning to relieve the Catholic priests who are held prisoners at Ching Hsien, 60 miles south. A detachment of 300 French troops started in the direction of Pao Ting Fu Saturday to co-operate with 400 troops reported to have left Peking. It is understood that Field Marshal Count von Waldersee refused to acknowledge Li Jung's visit Friday. The field marshal goes to Peking in a few days.

MEETING CRISIS BRAVELY.

Missionaries Will Continue Work in China, According to Reports to American Mission Board.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Several hundred officers, charter members, missionaries and workers of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, together with many prominent ministers and lay workers in Congregational churches of the country, met in Pilgrim Congregational church for a three days' session. The event that occasioned the gathering was the ninety-first annual meeting of the board, which is holding its most important session since 1810, the date of organization. The crisis in China and the famine in India, two of the largest fields, bring before the board conditions never before met by the body.

Judging from the reports made on China, the crisis is being met bravely and with the determination of continuing the work, notwithstanding the massacre of missionaries and destruction of mission property.

The presence of many missionaries from foreign fields and the reports given by them at the afternoon session gave added interest to the proceedings. Reports of officers and missionaries were the order of the day.

Call early and avoid the rush at the close.

REPLY MADE TO FRANCE.

Believed a Favorable View Was Taken of Some Suggestions.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the United States government to the latest note from France offering suggestions as to the settlement of the troubles in China was completed and delivered to M. Thibaut, charge d'affaires of the French embassy. By him it was forwarded immediately to his government.

No official statement of the contents of the answer was obtainable. Following its inflexible rule, the state department declined to make public the text of the communication or to make any statement of the nature of its contents, until opportunity had been afforded for its reception by the French foreign office.

It is believed, however, to take a favorable view of the suggestions submitted by the French government, in a general way, although it does not commit this government to all of them.

CARNEGIE SHIPS FOR EUROPE.

Will Sail From Conneaut, O., With Steel, to Liverpool.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The Carnegie Steel company has taken the first step toward the building up of all-water transportation of export steel from Lake Erie ports to Europe, in chartering four vessels to load with steel at Conneaut, O., and steam through via the Welland canal and the St. Lawrence to Liverpool.

Their capacity is about 2,500 tons each, on 18 feet of water. It is the intention to load each vessel with 1,000 tons of steel at Conneaut, and fill out at Montreal with 1,500 tons of wood pulp. Going through the Welland canal the vessels will draw only 12 feet, though 14 feet draught is possible.

Prohibitionists Reached Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—John G. Woolley and party, on board the Prohibition special train, arrived here and concluded the run across Michigan with an evening meeting at the Light Guard armory. The special made a total of eight stops. Meetings were held at Buchanan, Dowagiac, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Albion, Jackson and Ann Arbor, a warm reception being encountered at each stop.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

14TH YEAR. NO. 105.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1900.

TWO CENTS

MISSIONARY CONVENTION

SECOND DAY OF CONVENTION

Yesterday Afternoon Was Given Up Principally to the Transaction of Routine Business.

SEVERAL REPORTS WERE READ

Finances of Branch In Good Shape and Much Money Raised This Year.

AN EVENING WITH CHINA

The session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society yesterday afternoon convened at 2 o'clock. The afternoon was given over principally to routine business, the election of vice presidents, conference and district secretaries and standing committees, the present list of auditors and managers of the branch being confirmed.

Mrs. Philip Roettinger, vice president of the branch, occupied the chair at the beginning of the session, which was opened by the first hymn, "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing." Mrs. Carr led in prayer and after hymn 919 had been sung the scripture lesson was read from Psalm 156. Miss Turner and Miss Croxall were introduced as pages for the afternoon.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved, after which the report of the Ohio conference was read by their conference secretary, Mrs. J. H. Creighton. The report showed that over $12,000 had been raised by that conference.

Mrs. John Mitchell presented the report of the North Ohio conference, showing that this conference had raised $500 more this year than last.

The reports were received and placed on file.

Mrs. B. R. Cowen, branch corresponding secretary, then made her report, which was listened to with great interest. The report was a thorough and complete review of the work at home and abroad. One notable fact being that Africa for the first time appears in the report.

Mrs. Clara Zink sang a very beautiful solo.

The reports of the treasurers were next in order and in the absence of Mrs. J. C. Kunz, the receiving treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Boyd, the distributing treasurer, presented both reports. They showed that the receipts for the year were $58,070 41. The twentieth century thank offering, which is a separate fund, and collected for a specific purpose, $10,337. The total balance in the hands of the treasurers is $1,255 46.

The president, Mrs. Davis, yesterday afternoon introduced a new feature which consisted of making certain parties who have held the position of vice president, honorary vice presidents in consideration of their loyal services in the past. They are as follows:

Mrs. Dr. D. H. Moore, now in China; Mrs. J. F. Lloyd, of Highland, O.; Mrs. A. S. Clason, of Delaware, O.; Mrs. Horace Benton, of Cleveland; Mrs. J. M. Ervine.

The session closed at 4:30 with the benediction by Rev. N. U. Walker.

AN INTERESTING EVENING SESSION.

When the time arrived for the evening session there was a large attendance and services opened with an anthem by the choir, "Seek ye the Lord." It was followed by a solo by Prof. Phillis, who sang "The Pilgrim's Prayer" in splendid voice.

Hymn 596 was sung and then devotional services were conducted by Mrs. B. R. Cowen.

Just before the speaker was introduced a communication was handed to the president, Mrs. Davis. It asked that all ladies remove their hats, and was signed by one who could not see. The ladies very generally complied with the request.

The address of the evening was made by Rev. Dr. J. H. Worley, of China. He has spent 18 years as a missionary in China and has been in this country since last December. He took for his subject "An Evening With China," and his address is as follows:

The speaker commenced by saying that according to the printed program he was to speak from the subject, "An Evening With China." He hoped in the course of an hour to spend about 250 years with China, and might do a little prophesying before he was through. But before he started he wanted to make a few statements. In the first place he wanted to approve of everything that had lately been said in defense of the Chinese. European nations have not dealt fairly with China. They have from time to time taken large tracts of Chinese territory. Russia had been particularly grasping, and these things undoubtedly had something to do with the difficulties now being contended with in that country. He would not pretend to give all the causes. No one could do that. China was not only at war with the world, but with herself.

Some 250 years ago the Tartars, a warlike nation, succeeded in overthrowing the Chinese government, and since that time have controlled China absolutely. It was to defend themselves against the Tartars that the great wall was built. But it didn't serve the purpose. From that time until the present outbreak China has been as completely under the control of a foreign power as was Cuba. As soon as the Tartars were established rightly they inaugurated a system of service. All the principal offices were distributed among the Tartars. The 18 provinces in China were thronged with from 10,000 to 50,000 Tartar spies and emissaries. A few of the minor civil offices were given to Chinamen of royal blood, such, for example, as Li Hung Lang and Wu. These men owed their prominence to the Tartars. Every favor and every courtesy accorded these Chinamen of royal blood was bestowed by the Tartars. Is it any wonder they were true to their government?

Origin of the Boxers.

About this time the intelligent of the Chinamen formed a fraternal secret society, which had for its primary object the overthrow of the Tartar government. This society had representatives all over the country, and were active at all times. The name of this society was changed from time to time in order to avoid being apprehended by the government officials. These names were always tak-

Li Ho Chang, which meant righteousness, peace and industry.

This was the beginning of the Boxers. An error had evidently been made in interpreting the meaning of the word Le Ho Chang, as the latter part of the word stood for palm, and whoever hit upon the word Boxer had taken it to mean fist instead of the palm. The fact that the members of this society were recognized as a gymnastic organization was another reason, perhaps, for the interpretation. The Chinese soldier is said to get his courage to a high pitch by a series of gymnastics. It is like this: A Chinese soldier takes as his god the soul of some departed hero, and in this manner may be preserved through battle, provided he can get possession of the soul. This requires many gymnastic evolutions, and occurs previous to every battle—another reason, possibly, for the name Boxer.

During the 40 years of Hang Pah's reign he never had an offspring to his true wife, and when he died he left but one son, and that to one of his numerous concubines. This woman, together with the true wife, ruled China by regent for many years. The real wife is described as a weak, submissive creature, while the mother was precisely opposite in disposition, being a keen, mercenary and hard-hearted woman. The boy succeeded to the throne two years later, having married in the meantime. He died soon after and then there were three regents. The true empress and the wife of the old emperor did not survive long, and it is an undeniable fact that they were murdered by the old emperor's concubine. This is the woman who is today terrorizing the entire nation, the present empress dowager.

She then had everything in her own hands and proceeded to make the best of the situation. A meeting of the royal princes was called for the purpose of selecting a successor to the throne, the bony Tuan Twang being the next of kin, but he did not suit the scheming woman, as he had, young as he was, succeeded in exerting great power among the people. The dowager empress, however, still had sufficient influence to have another boy, much younger than he, appointed. This enabled her to retain control for some time. The boy was kept in the background until Tuan succeeded to power. The empress then remained behind the scenes until two years ago. Things moved on until China and Japan went to war. This was a Great Blessing to China.

The trouble was the lesson was not severe enough; China needed reform—something radical.

Two years ago a number of young students, realizing the need of reform conceived the idea of writing the emperor, Tuan, feeling that he was in position to know the wants and needs of the people. These young men in a majority of cases had been educated by the Christian missionaries. The intelligence imparted by these communications had the effect of opening the eyes of the emperor, and he took immediate steps to carry out the suggestions. He issued with the end in view of giving the common people a better opportunity to gain knowledge, ordering all unoccupied temples converted into schools. Geography was introduced and a great rush was made to take advantage of the opportunity for education.

This displeased the empress and she took steps to put the young emperor out of the way, as it was not her intention to have her subjects educated. He was put in prison and has remained a captive ever since.

Dealt With Chinese Politics.

The speaker dealt at some length on Chinese politics, describing the method of education to fit themselves for official positions; stating that only the rich could take advantage of the opportunities for learning, owing to the length of time required to fit themselves to be statesmen and the expense incurred. Their civil service policy was rotten to the core.

This same society, instituted 250 years ago, was still in existence when this great question of reform was uppermost in the minds of the true Chinamen. This was the real cause of the Boxer outbreak. The empress was apprehensive. She could see the inevitable and took steps to guard against the invasion of the foreign devils and native Christians. Since the Japanese war their rice has been exported, and this was taken advantage of in order to raise sufficient revenue to equip the army.

Hard Times in China

was the result. Japan had money to pay for the rice and wanted it. The price went up, but wages remained the same or lower, so that the outlook of the Boxers was really a mammoth strike. By a clever piece of diplomacy this woman succeeded in directing the wrath of the revolutionists against the foreigners instead of toward the real source of their troubles.

Dewey Gave China Joy.

When the news of Dewey's achievement reached China it carried a thrill of joy on the part of all Americans and Christian nations there, as they felt it was God's doing, and was coming nearer China, to work out their destiny. The speaker said when the Chinese question is ultimately settled America will be the most influential to that end.

America don't want territory, and the Chinese know it. They see in us a true friend, who has only their welfare at heart. Minister Conger's salvation had lain in this fact. The speaker was not here to talk politics, but he would say, and his experience had taught him to be an expansionist, and that expansion was right. We were there and we should stay and do our duty. It was right to mediate in Cuba. It is right to mediate in China. It was God's cause and for the commercial good of the whole world.

At War With Herself.

China was at war with herself. There was no denying that, and the only solution for the dominion was western civilization. The emperor of Germany has been criticized severely for his views, but he was the only man who had yet fathomed the question and found the true solution. His plan to take no prisoners was severe, but was the only way to go about it, as extreme measures were absolutely necessary.

Our armies were in Peking and they should stay there. There were tens of thousands of Chinamen who would embrace the Christian religion were they not afraid. The empress should be done away with, hung if necessary. Prince Tuan restored to power and China would work out her own destiny. The Woman's Foreign Missionary society has played a great part in the salvation of China, and were destined to be an important factor in its future. God's hand was moving in the matter. Give the praise to God. The time is coming when the call will be to go to greater fields than the world has ever known.

Closing Exercises.

After the address Miss Grace Dawson sang a very beautiful solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord."

Then the president, Mrs. Davis, announced that a Methodist meeting was not complete without a collection and for that reason would be taken to defray the expense of programs and other incidentals. A generous response was asked.

The morning meeting was announced for 9:30 and a statement made that gentlemen visitors would be especially welcome at all sessions of the convention.

BUSINESS OF THE MORNING SESSION.

The morning session opened promptly at 9:30, with the singing of hymn 923, followed by devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Matlack, who read a portion of Isaiah for the scripture lesson.

For the accommodation of the ladies who wished to visit the potteries the time for closing the morning session was placed at 12 o'clock.

Minutes of the Tuesday evening, Wednesday afternoon and evening meetings were read and approved, after which reports were read from the following conference secretaries:

East Ohio, by Mrs. J. R. Walls; West Virginia, Mrs. J. R. Rose. The latter report showed the phenomenal increase of $1,185 20. Mrs. Biles read the report from Kentucky, which showed an increase of $220 31.

The report of the general conference was read by Mrs. Barnes, recording secretary; Central Ohio, Mrs. W. O. Seemans.

The report from the Woman's Missionary Friend was read by Mrs. Payne and showed an increase of 259 subscriptions over last year.

Mrs. B. F. Jackson presented the following resolution:

"In order to stimulate to a wider adoption of the prescribed missionary reading course; be it

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of each district secretary to report to the committee on the Woman's Friend at branch meeting the names of all members in her district who have read the course for that year, and that the report shall be read and also printed in the annual report of the branch."

This was amended by a motion of Mrs. Matlack to read: "And also to be read at the district meetings." The resolution as amended was adopted.

The by-law committee reported several changes to the by-laws and constitution.

Mrs. Mitchell and four others offered this resolution:

"Owing to the increasing importance of the depository of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society at the branch headquarters in Cincinnati and the arduous duties of some of the branch officers, we recommend that some one be employed to give her time to the care of the depository, rendering such clerical and other aid as the branch officers may require."

The resolution was adopted.

The committee appointed for the purpose of nominating branch officers made the following report:

President, Mrs. Wm. D. Davis, Cincinnati.

Recording secretary, Mrs. C. W. Barnes, Springfield.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. R. Cowen.

Receiving treasurer, Mrs. John C. Kunz.

Distributing treasurer, Mrs. Charles C. Boyd.

These officers will be voted for this afternoon.

GET YOURSELF ONE.

Bishops J. M. Thoburn and F. W. Warne are the Authors of "Light in the East."

It is a wonderful story, graphically related, full of interest from cover to cover, and exceptionally attractive just at present on account of the troubles in the Great East. Stirring, truthful incidents of India, Malaysia and the Philippines are given in a manner which will rivet your attention in the closest manner. The authors are men of worldwide reputation and power as speakers and writers, and their words have the stamp of authority upon them.

The book will cost you the small sum of 20 cents, and Mrs. Morgan will be very glad to transfer it from her hands to your own as you enter the auditorium of the First Methodist Episcopal church tonight.

Do yourself a great favor and help a grandly glorious cause by purchasing one of these books. The proceeds go to the aid of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society.

WISE LOST.

A Sneak Thief Went Through His Clothes at Thompson's Pottery Yesterday.

Ollie Wise, a saggermaker at the C. C. Thompson pottery, went to work at the pottery this morning and hung his trousers in the sagger shop and donned a pair of overalls. He left his watch, some money and several small articles in his trousers. During the day he was carrying out saggars and in his absence from the shop some person went through his clothes and removed the watch, part of the money and a pen knife. The thief left Wise 35 cents to begin with once more.

A WAY THEY HAVE.

What This East Liverpool Citizen Says Only Corroborates the Story of Thousands.

The particulars related by this representative citizen of East Liverpool are similar to hundreds of others in this city. When there are scores of people, all anxious to tell about the benefits received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills are greatest skeptic in East Liverpool must be convinced. Read this:

Mr. G. H. Garner, the well known manufacturer of ice cream at 168 Jackson street, says: "My trouble set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body; my appetite was poor and I was annoyed a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt, generally used up. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them and I procured a box at W. & W. pharmacy. I did not take over half of it before I was entirely free from any trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I recommended them to many of my friends, among them P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"Good Night."

How few women know what it is to have a good night; a night of sound, restful sleep. They smile and say "good night" in cheery tones, but when the chamber door closes behind them, the smiling mask drops off, and shows the lines of suffering.

Other women have had the bad nights changed to good by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. So may you. Ninety-eight times in every hundred it perfectly cures diseases of the delicate womanly organs. It builds up the nervous system, puts flesh on the body and color on the cheek.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va., "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting their nerves to the shock of an examination. I was all run down in health—could not work but a short while without resting. Was so nervous at times that I could not even write; had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case. I received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

DEMOCRACY ON THE TRUST

Issue—Every Line of Legislation
Against the Trusts of the Nation

WERE PLACED THERE BY

The Republicans, and the Democrats Voted Against a Constitutional Amendment.

AIMING TO REGISTER THEM

Bryan and his followers are shown up in their true light on the Trust question when facts and figures are thrust upon them, and the great mass of voters of the country are laughing at them for placing themselves in an absurd position. The Democratic leaders voted against granting unto congress the right to control and regulate trusts and then, with unblushing effrontery and infinite cheek, blame the Republicans who stood in favor of regulating and controlling them.

Every line of legislation now on the statute books of the United States directed against trusts and unlawful trade combinations was placed there by the Republicans.

That there is not more stringent law against them is the fault of the Democratic party.

The last occasion on which the parties, as represented in congress, went on record on the trust question was on June 1, 1900.

On that day a final vote was taken on a constitutional amendment to grant congress power to "define, regulate, prohibit and dissolve trusts, monopolies and combinations in the form of corporations or otherwise."

It requires a two-thirds vote of congress to submit a constitutional amendment to the state legislatures for ratification.

The question to so submit it was lost by a vote of 154 yeas to 132 nays.

Of the yeas 149 were Republicans and only 5 were Democrats. The five were Campbell, of Montana; Napphen and Taylor, of Massachusetts; Scudder, of New York, and Sibley, of Pennsylvania.

Of the 132 nays only two were Republicans, Loud and McCall.

Richardson, Lentz, Sulzer, Ruppert, Salmon and all other "trust killers" voted nay. They declined to give congress the power to grapple with the trusts. The Democrats indulged in spasms of virtue for two days, denouncing the trusts, and then voted to continue them.

In one of Mr. Bryan's recent speeches he gave the Republican remedy as the final one he would adopt, in case he was elected and all other means failed.

In other words Mr. Bryan admits the value of the Republican idea, but wants to try other measures first. He has not said what those measures are to be.

Some trusts operate all over the country; others, like the New York ice trust, operate in a single city. The requisite power to reach each and all and bring them within the federal law was denied by a margin of 36 votes, all Democratic.

Denouncing is one thing. Doing is another. Mr. Bryan's trust denunciations, in view of his party's record, promise no better than the prophecies he made four years ago, and as a prophet Mr. Bryan has not succeeded.

Senator Jones and the Sugar Trust. The Democrats made another brilliant pro-trust record during the same session of congress. Representative

Clay colliery, Shamokin, Pa.; 5 men killed

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes
the gold standard is a good thing, or
that it must be maintained, I warn
him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than
I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon.
William Jennings Bryan in a speech
at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

REPUBLICANS.

Read the papers of your city, and
note the columns thereof. None so blind as those who will not see. The man who is not for you is against
you, and his cloven hoof will betray
him in spite of all his cunning. Sneers
and threats at Republicans do not come from friends. Do not nourish a viper at your hearthstone, lest it revive and sting you to industrial death.

THAT CALF STORY.

See the illustrated calf story in the show window of the News Review office. There is a wonderful history in the sketch. It very much amuses and edifies the Republican voter, and
causes the average Bryanite to clench
his teeth in rage, and then, figurative-
ly speaking, rent a kicking machine
and practice on himself. The picture is the essence of truth, embraced in
a nutshell.

SPLENDID AUDIENCE.

There was a splendid audience present at the First M. E. church last night. One very noticeable feature
was the large number of men in attendance. Everything moves like clock work. The presiding officers understand and perform their duties to
a nicety. The lady ushers and collectors are models in their specialties.
The interior of the edifice presents a charming appearance. You have a very cordial invitation to be present
tonight.

FAIR WARNING.

Judge Hole and Prosecuting Attorney Brookes made it unpleasant for
some very bad men and women of Co-
lumbiana county lately, lawbreakers,
illegal sellers of intoxicants and keepers of houses of ill fame. Some of these despicable creatures paid heavy
fines and costs. And now it is said,
on good authority, that they are again
engaged in their unlawful, disreputable and shameful traffic, attempting to recoup themselves for their losses, inflicted by the court. We give them
fair warning that they are playing
with edged tools, and that, in case

they are again arraigned before the court at Lisbon, the penalties inflicted
will astound them.

BAD NEWS.

The news from the anthracite coal
mining region is very sad. One man
shot to death, one fatally wounded
and a number more or less severely injured is the story. The civil officers seem unable to cope with the
maddened strikers, and the outlook is that the military arm of the state will be called upon. The order should be issued that every saloon in the region
must be shut down until the termination of the difficulty. Cool heads and
good judgment are very much needed
there at the present time. Devil's broth has no business there at any time, and especially just now.

TRUST HOWLERS.

Bryanites are becoming desperate.
"Militarism" and "imperialism" have become deadly boomerangs in their hands, and they are afraid to throw
the weapons, fearful of injuring themselves; and they are right, as the great mass of voters of the nation
have condemned the calamity howl-
ers and are joining the ranks swelling around and about McKinley and Roosevelt. And now Bryan and his followers are trying to deceive the
masses by howling against trusts, intimating that, because Republicans
are in power, they are responsible for
the trusts that are in existence over
the land. The Congressional Record
shows that, on June 1, 1900, 149 Republicans and 5 Democrats voted against the trusts, while 130 Democrats and 2 Republicans voted in favor of the trusts. Workingmen of the country, toilers everywhere, men of
strong common sense, readers and thinkers, Bryan and his followers, the leaders of Democracy, seem to think
that you cannot reason and judge for yourselves. Show these gentlemen
that they are mistaken. Demonstrate that you are fully capable of taking care of your own interests. Let them know that McKinley has kept his promises of 1896 to the letter, and that you can safely trust him for another
four years.

REV. DR. J. H. WORLEY.

Read the article in today's issue
respecting China, the Boxers and the empress dowager. The reverend author has spent many years in China
as a missionary, returning home only
last December. He believes in the war with Spain as a providential is-
sue. He believes in the retention of the Philippine islands. He believes in the United States retaining her
place in China until the settlement
of the present trouble. He does not believe in the dismemberment or partitioning of that great empire. He is a firm believer in expansion. He is in favor of the downfall of the empress
dowager and would hold her immediately responsible for the massacre of
the Europeans and native Christians.
He believes in the open door of China,
and prays that it may never again be closed to Christianity. He believes in lasting peace in that great country,
even if we must have hot war to obtain this desired end. He states that the great reform party of China reverses and trusts and confides in the United States. He asserts that there was great joy in the ranks of the native reformers when Dewey won his noted victory at Manila, the reformers
claiming that the downfall of the Span-
iard in the archipelago was merely the initiatory step leading to grandly
glorious things for China, the reformers claiming the United States
soldiers as friends in time of great need. Read the speech. It will pay
you to do so.

the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Irwin, East Palestine.

THREE ARRESTS MADE LAST NIGHT

Henry Scheckler and Frank George
Had a Pitched Battle on Second Street.

THEY WERE BOTH RUN IN

Mayor Davidson Assessed Them
Each $1 and Costs and They
Will Pay Today.

A COMMON DRUNK CAPTURED

Three arrests were made last night
in order to keep up business at city
hall.

Henry Checkler, who resides in Chester, and Frank George, who lives
in this city, had a wordy war on Second street last night. They were not able to control their tempers and when
the proper time arrived they went
at each other in the hammer and tong
fashion. Neither of them had succeeded in doing any damage when Officers Aufderheide and Gill arrived on the scene.

They explained to the combatants
that the city ordinance prohibited
demonstrations of this kind on the streets and they would have to take a trip to the city jail. When Mayor
Davidson heard their story he fined
them each $1 and costs and they will
call this afternoon and pay up.

D. Reece was a common drunk that Officer Bettridge gathered in last night. He was assessed $1 and costs,
furnished the cash and was released.

STOCKHOLDERS MET.

An Effort Will be Made to Make a Success Out of the Gas
Plant.

The Gas Construction company met
last evening in the Potters' club rooms
and discussed matters of importance
to the company.

At a meeting to be held next Thursday evening matters will be gone into
in detail. We have assurance from
a party who should be reliable that
the failure of the concern lies in imperfections in the structure in the first place, when a false system of economy was followed. The inventor
and those next to him say the concern
could be made a flattering success,
while a number of citizens who have
been discussing the question, assert
that the scheme is a visionary one,
and is not susceptible of practical success. They assert the scheme was that of a visionary of visionaries, who is a dealer in flattering options. His investments as a rule have been very
flattering for his own pocket and the direct opposite for his victims.

We have the assurance from one
gentleman, said to be thoroughly posted in the manufacture of gas, that there is no doubt of the complete success of a venture of this kind if handled from its inception by practical
men and not by mere visionaries or sharks, who are attempting to line
their own pockets at the expense of
the stockholders.

For the sake of the city at large
and those who have invested large sums of money, the News Review expresses the desire that the future may yet prove a success in every particular.

EAST END. A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Runaway Team Came Near Ending the Life of John Spence.

A runoff occurred at the National pottery at 11:45 this morning, in which John Spence, who drives the city team in East End, narrowly escaped serious injury.

Robert Leeper, of near Hookstown, had stopped his team near the National and left them standing for a short time. While he was gone the horses became frightened at an approaching freight train and went down the road at a terrific pace. At the end of the alley just east of the George B. McKinnon restaurant they encountered the city wagon, driven by Spence, and loaded with broken ware to be used on the street. The second team could not stop and so they separated, one going on either side of the wagon ahead. Spence was sitting on the load when the collision occurred, and his horse and wagon were carried a distance of 25 yards.

The tongue of Leeper's wagon ran over the top of the city wagon and narrowly escaped Spence's head. The tongue was broken in several places and one of the traces was broken squarely in two. The horses were not hurt.

Steam Pipe Burst.

A steam pipe burst at the National pottery Tuesday night and caused considerable damage.

The pipe was used for heating purposes in the green room, and when it burst a great of ware was more or less damaged. Ware on every board in the stilliards was broken and the loss will amount to considerable. The damage was repaired yesterday.

YOUTSEY MAY BECOME INSANE.

Again Exclaimed There Was No Blood on His Hands.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 11.—Henry Youtsey has remained in a comatose condition. Whether that is due to the opiates administered to quiet him cannot be ascertained. He has answered no questions addressed to him by his nearest relatives and physicians but once or twice during the day he held up his hands and exclaimed: "There is no blood on my hands—there is no man's blood on my hands!"

He has kept his eyes closed and they were still slightly crossed as if drawn and set by the convulsion he had had. The only nourishment he has taken was a glass of milk, which was almost forced down his throat by the physicians. Dr. Carriek says he is in an extremely critical condition, which may take a sudden change for the better or worse at any moment, and if for the worse Youtsey will be permanently insane. He had not been to the juryroom in the courthouse last night, as directed by Judge Cantrill.

GIRL NAMED CARROLL MISSING.

She Was Used by Dr. Unger, as a Subject on Which to Take Out Insurance Policies—Brown Employed an Unusual Number of Stenographers.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Laura Carroll is named as another victim of the insurance conspiracy syndicate, said to be headed by Dr. August H. Unger. The physician used her, it is said, as a subject on whom to take out policies in a game similar to that which was attempted on Marie Defenbach. The Carroll woman disappeared four or five months ago, and none of those with whom she associated have seen her since. During her residence here she was an intimate friend of Miss Defenbach, and is alleged to have been a patient and sweetheart of Dr. Unger's. Miss Carroll was about 22 years of age. She was an orphan and had a guardian, Dr. Gustav Schmidt living in Milwaukee, from which city she came here. During the six or seven months that F. Wayland Brown was managing the Mooney and Boland office here an unusual number of stenographers was employed. They were all women and all were employed by Brown. The subsequent disappearance of any of them is now deemed a matter worth looking into, as likely to show effort to defraud on a much larger scale than has yet been brought to light.

The subjects on which the Unger-Brown-Smylie syndicate secured insurance with fraudulent intent are all believed to be women, while the active members of the organization are men. There are indications that the organization has a much wider scope than was at first thought. It is asserted by detectives that at least two score of people are criminally connected with it. One of those who is now under surveillance is a wealthy and prominent lawyer. He is alleged to be the financial backer.

GOV. ROOSEVELT STONED.

Hoodlums Attacked His Carriage at Ft. Wayne—Not Badly Hurt—Laughed Over the Matter.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Hoodlums of Ft. Wayne made an attack upon Governor Roosevelt in this city. In Calhoun street shortly before the head of the procession reached the rink, where the governor was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of stones at Colonel Roosevelt's carriage. One struck Governor Roosevelt on the shoulder and another, aimed at the governor, missed him and struck Colonel Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston, in the face.

The governor was not hurt, and laughed the matter off. The horses attached to the governor's carriage were whipped up, and got away from the roughs, who offered no further violence, and used no bad or insulting language.

JONES HAS MEN IN OHIO.

Investigating Whether Employers Are Coercing Their Employees.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—A call will be issued by the Democratic national committee for a "grand rally" on Oct. 27 of all the Democratic clubs in the country. The day will be set apart as a Democratic field day.

Chairman Jones, of the national committee, said: "I intend to address a letter to the Democratic clubs all over the country, requesting them to give me the proof, in all instances that come within their knowledge, of employers undertaking to coerce or intimidate employees. I have now some men in Ohio for the purpose of ascertaining the conditions there. They are intelligent men, who are close observers, and I have instructed them to report carefully what facts they discover. Our people are thoroughly aroused to the danger in this direction and are determined to have an honest election."

WARM WELCOME TO ROOSEVELT.

Addressed Three Political Meetings at Ft. Wayne—Three Parades There.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Governor Roosevelt closed a busy day's work by making three speeches in this city last night, addressing the greatest number of persons in the aggregate who ever gathered in Ft. Wayne to listen to a political candidate. He was honored also with three large parades.

The last stop prior to the arrival here was at Huntington, where a large illuminated parade was given. Reaching Ft. Wayne, the governor was driven immediately to the rink, where he was greeted with prolonged applause. Having delivered his address, he was escorted to a large tent especially erected for the occasion, where he made a second speech, and thence he went to Library hall, where he spoke for the third time. Others also spoke.

CROWDS COMPLIMENTARY IN SIZE

Bryan Made Number of Speeches—First Day's Tour in Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 11.—The weather for the first day of Mr. Bryan's tour of the state of Michigan was all that could be asked. He made 16 addresses. The towns in which he made speeches were as follows: Michigan City, New Buffalo, Benton Harbor, Niles, Dowagiac, Lawton, Kalamazoo, Plainwell, Otsego, Allegan, Hamilton, Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon and Grand Rapids, two meetings having been held at the last-named place. The crowds were all complimentary in size as well as in the attention given.

Altgeld Addressed Yale Club.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 11.—The Yale Democratic club held its first rally of the campaign last night, when ex-Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, made the principal address. The affair was a great success, as Music hall, with a capacity of 2,500, was taxed to its utmost, and hundreds were unable to gain admission.

COMBINE OF THE ACCUSED.

Councilmen, at Cleveland, Will Resist in Court Committee's Right to Probe into Alleged Wrongdoing.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The fact was revealed at the session of the city council bribery investigation committee that the Cleveland councilmen whose conduct has figured most prominently in the testimony have combined and their lawyers together will try to stop the inquiry. The right of the committee to call upon councilmen to testify will be tested in the courts. The testimony of President D.B. Steur, of the council, was required by the committee, and though a subpoena had been served upon him he failed to appear. The committee issued an attachment for him and he was brought in by a constable and placed upon the witness stand. He refused to answer questions upon advice of his attorney. The committee then ordered him committed to the county jail for contempt of court. The half dozen lawyers engaged by councilmen had already prepared for this, however, and they obtained his release at once on a writ of habeas corpus, which will be considered by Judge Dellenbaugh, of the common pleas court today. The lawyers declare that the committee is acting illegally, and that they will put an end to its proceedings. Councilman White had also been subpoenaed, and he also failed to appear. He was brought in by a constable. He said he was the secretary of a storage company, but refused to give the names of any of the stockholders. When asked whether he were not in himself the entire company he answered in the negative. After some fencing he admitted that the building used by the storage concern is owned by the Big Consolidated Street Railway company. To the question whether he did not use the building free of rent he answered, "I pay all the rent they ask of me."

A LIBERAL PRESBYTERY.

Recommended Attack on Pope in Confession Be Stricken Out—Stand by Westminster Creed.

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—The presbytery of San Francisco decided to stand by the Westminster confession of faith. As a concession to the revisionists the presbytery agreed to the alteration of the phrasing of the sections relating to predestination, foreordination and infant damnation. It was further recommended that the section referring to the pope as anti-Christ be stricken out and that the ban against the intermarriage between Presbyterians and the papists be removed.

MONEY FOR CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Large Sums For Endowment; Also Establishment of Chairs.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Cardinal Gibbons, the chairman of the board of trustees of the Catholic University of America, presided at the annual meeting of that body in McMahon hall. Archbishop Keane reported that during the year he had secured $70,000 for general expenses and $300,000 in pledges for the endowment. He will be compelled to relinquish further labors for the university, because of his new duties as archbishop of Dubuque. Rector Conaty stated that during the year he had received $50,000 in cash, part for current expenses and part for endowment of chairs. The rector also reported that $61,000 in other subscriptions would be available this year.

A REPLY BY BRYAN.

Says 13th Amendment Don't Interfere With Sulu Treaty, Due to Administration's Policy.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 11.—Hon. W. J. Bryan took cognizance of the letter sent to him by Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn. The reply says:

"I am in receipt of your favor of the 6th in regard to the Sulu treaty. It is true that the president two months after the signing of the treaty sent to General Otis the instructions which you quote. You will note that the treaty, or agreement, as the president describes it, was confirmed and approved subject to the action of congress, and the only exception that he made was in regard to article 10 relating to slavery. You can but know, however, that since the president sent those instructions the Republican party, with the approval of the administration, has adopted the theory that the constitution does not follow the flag, and, therefore, the thirteenth amendment does not interfere with slavery in the Sulu archipelago.

"The Porto Rico law asserts the doctrine that the people of Porto Rico are beyond the protection of the constitution and can be governed by the arbitrary and unrestrained power of the president and congress. If the constitution itself cannot reach the West Indies, how can the thirteenth amendment find its way across the Pacific into Asia? The president does not repudiate article 13, which reads as follows: 'The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects if any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.'"

"In view of the fact that the president in his letter of acceptance declares it dangerous for us to agree to protect a Christian republic in the Philippine islands, would it not be wise for him to withdraw the agreement to protect a Mohammedan island. The agreement does not repudiate article 14, which reads as follows: 'The United States will not sell the island of Sulu or any other island without the consent of the sultan of Sulu.'"

"If we buy all the Philippine islands from Spain without the consent of the inhabitants it is fair that we should agree not to sell any of the Sulu islands without the consent of the sultan? In other words, it is more important that a sultan's wishes should be considered than that the interests of the rest of the people should be regarded? Very respectfully yours,

W. J. Bryan."

HARRISON WON'T CAMPAIGN

Quit It After 1896 Contest—His Position as to Porto Rico—Opposed to Bryan.

Nw York, Oct. 11.—General Benjamin Harrison gave out an interview and statement in which he said he had quit campaigning with the campaign of 1896, and would do no more work of that nature.

"But, general, it is said that you are not altogether in accord with your party?" was asked.

General Harrison replied in part: "Well, I have heard that my silence was imputed by some to that cause. Now, the only public utterance I have made in criticism of the policies of the party was contained in the interview, consisting of one rather short sentence that I gave to the newspapers while the Porto Rico bill was pending. It was in substance that I regarded the bill as a grave departure from the right principles. I still think so. I do not believe that the legislative power of congress in the territories is absolute—and I do believe that the revenue clause relating to duties and imposts applies to Porto Rico. These views I know are not held by many able lawyers. It is a legal question—one that the political departments of the government cannot fully adjudge. The final and controlling word upon this question is with the supreme court of the United States.

"The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie hall speech in 1898 why Mr. Bryan should not be elected still hold good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental and business affairs into confusion. We should not aid the election of a president who would, admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value even more, upon the deceptive suggestion that he has been bound, and that the Republican party will, after defeat, still have strength enough to save the temple. It will be much better not to allow the man with destructive tendencies so much as to lean against its pillars."

Tact is being more and more recognized as a valuable instrument in man's welfare and happiness.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mechanism of a Fish.

People marvel at the mechanism of the human body, with its 492 bones and 60 arteries, but man is simple in this respect compared with the carp. That remarkable fish moves no fewer than 4,386 bones and muscles every time it breathes. It has 4,320 veins, to say nothing of its 99 muscles.

NEW REVOLT FEARED.

Chinese Likely to Arise in Southern Provinces.

MORE TROOPS FOR HONGKONG.

Hongkong, Oct. 11.—It is said that the authorities here have received information that a general rising in the southern provinces has been planned for the month of November. Ten thousand more troops from India have been requisitioned for Hongkong. The Sixteenth Bengal Lancers and the Hongkong regiment have been recalled from the north to Hongkong. The present indications are that there will be a Boxer rising similar to that which occurred in North China. The whereabouts of the rebels in the Hinterland is not known, but is believed to be 10 miles north of the British borders. A detachment of 1,000 Chinese troops took up a position at San Chung and 1,000 more will arrive.

London, Oct. 11.—A special dispatch from Shanghai, dated Oct. 9, says: "The Triads have men and repeatedly defeated the imperial troops near Kowloon. They are daily gaining fresh adherents. Heavy Russian reinforcements are moving northward from Port Arthur, with the object of relieving pressure upon Mukden. Every place of importance in Manchuria, from Kiatka to the Primorsk boundary and from the Amur to the Great Wall, is now in Russian hands."

Tien Tsai, Oct. 11.—A military order has been issued to the German troops to occupy the railroad from Yang Tsun to Peking. The rest of the road will be occupied by the Russians and the harbor of Ching Wang Tao has been allotted to the British. A detachment of 800 French troops, with six guns, started yesterday morning to relieve the Catholic priests who are held prisoners at Ching Hsien, 60 miles south. A detachment of 300 French troops started in the direction of Pao Ting Fu Saturday to co-operate with 400 troops reported to have left Peking. It is understood that Field Marshal Count von Waldersee refused to acknowledge Li Jung's visit Friday. The field marshal goes to Peking in a few days.

MEETING CRISIS BRAVELY.

Missionaries Will Continue Work in China, According to Reports to American Mission Board.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Several hundred officers, charter members, missionaries and workers of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, together with many prominent ministers and lay workers in Congregational churches of the country, met in Pilgrim Congregational church for a three days' session. The event that occasioned the gathering was the ninety-first annual meeting of the board, which is holding its most important session since 1810, the date of organization. The crisis in China and the famine in India, two of the largest fields, bring before the board conditions never before met by the body.

Judging from the reports made on China, the crisis is being met bravely and with the determination of continuing the work, notwithstanding the massacre of missionaries and destruction of mission property.

The presence of many missionaries from foreign fields and the reports given by them at the afternoon session gave added interest to the proceedings. Reports of officers and missionaries were the order of the day.

REPLY MADE TO FRANCE.

Believed a Favorable View Was Taken of Some Suggestions.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the United States government to the latest note from France offering suggestions as to the settlement of the troubles in China was completed and delivered to M. Thiebaud, charge d'affaires of the French embassy. By him it was forwarded immediately to his government.

No official statement of the contents of the answer was obtainable. Following its inflexible rule, the state department declined to make public the text of the communication or to make any statement of the nature of its contents, until opportunity had been afforded for its reception by the French foreign office.

It is believed, however, to take a favorable view of the suggestions submitted by the French government. In a general way, although it does not commit this government to all of them.

CARNEGIE SHIPS FOR EUROPE.

Will Sail From Conneaut, O., With Steel, to Liverpool.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The Carnegie Steel company has taken the first step toward the building up of all-water transportation of export steel from Lake Erie ports to Europe, in chartering four vessels to load with steel at Conneaut, O., and steam through via the Welland canal and the St. Lawrence to Liverpool.

Their capacity is about 2,500 tons each, on 18 feet of water. It is the intention to load each vessel with 1,000 tons of steel at Conneaut, and fill out at Montreal with 1,500 tons of wood pulp. Going through the Welland canal the vessels will draw only 12 feet, though 14 feet draught is possible.

The special made a total of eight stops. Meetings were held at Buchanan, Dowagiac, Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Albion, Jackson and Ann Arbor, a warm reception being encountered at each stop.
